Ship's Hijack Is A Possible 'Act Of War'

Rusk Tells North Korea To 'Cool It' On Pueblo

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the North Korean seizure of the USS Pueblo could be considered "an act of war." Diplomatic efforts to obtain the ship's return have thus far failed.

A top Administration official said the Soviet Union had refused to intervene with North Korea in an effort to secure the release of the U.S. intelligence ship and its 83 men.

(The commander of the pirated U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo ordered top secret codes and electronic gear destroyed as North Koreans boarded his ship Monday night, sources said, according to the Associated Press.)

The White House confirmed that diplomatic efforts to free the Pueblo had been unsuccessful.

STEPS UNKNOWN

Rusk declined to speculate on what steps the United States might take.

"My strong advice to North Korea is to cool it. There have been enough of these incidents and they have come out of North Korea.

"North Korea would be well advised to pull back here, stop this kind of activity, and decide to live in peace with its neighbors."

Rusk spoke to reporters on Capitol Hill after testifying nearly three hours before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

NO HELP ASKED

A Pentagon source, meanwhile, said the Pueblo lay dead in the water for an hour and 45 minutes while North Korean gunboats surrounded it but did not ask for help until it was actually boarded.

The disclosure added to the mystery of why the lightly armed ship did not ask for air support from fairly close U. S. bases in South Korea as North Korean patrol boats —backed by MIG fighters circling overhead —closed in and seized the intelligence vessel.

A Pentagon source said an analysis of messages from the Pueblo indicated the skipper, Cmdr. Lloyd Mark Bucher, 38, of San Diego, did not realize he was in trouble until the Communist boarding party was actually coming over the rails of his vessel.

By the time he asked for help, the Navy said it was too late to

U.S. Admits Worldwide Spy Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Capture of the Pueblo by the North Koreans—and the Pentagon's acknowledgment the ship was a Navy intelligence vessel—lifts the official lid on worldwide electronic spying by the major powers.

It marks a drastic change from the Pentagon's insistence that the Liberty, a spy ship shot up by the Israelis off Egypt last June, was a "technical research ship."

"Intelligence collection by naval vessels is a routine activity among major powers," a defense official said yesterday, indicating a more relaxed attitude toward suggestions the United States engages in this kind of activity.

"It is common knowledge that for a number of years intelligence collecting ships have followed U.S. fleet activities in various parts of the world," he added. The official obviously was alluding to the Soviet Union's terrier-like electronic eavesdropping vessels which show up wherever U.S. fleets are manuevering and near important Polaris submarine and other bases.

Such ships, in the guise of fishing trawlers, are "in fact positioned in international waters off the shores of the United States and other nations right now," this official said.

The U.S. intelligence vessels —which listen in on the radio traffic of other countries, spot radar sites and gather information to permit jamming them—and the Soviet Union's deep sea intelligence ships are parts of an extensive electronic intelligence system which has grown up in the Cold War years.

Reds Firm; Won't Return Ship, Men

CMDR. LLOYD M. BUCHER
Skipper of Pueblo

PANMUNJON, Korea (UPI)— In a truce line confrontation, the United States today demanded North Korea return the hijacked USS Pueblo and its 83 men but the Communist regime said it will keep the intelligence ship.

"The ship will remain in our hands," Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Kuk of North Korea told U. S. Rear Adm. John V. Smith at a face to face meeting of the Korean Armistice Truce Commission. Pak also said several Americans were "killed and wounded" in Tuesday's ship capture.

Smith accused North Korea of launching a "campaign of provocation, sabotage and assassination." He said, "If the North Korean regime persists in this campaign, which can only endanger the peace of this area, the responsibility for the consequences will rest on the North Korea regime."

The U. S. Navy admiral also lashed North Korea for sending 31 "gangsters" on a vain attempt Sunday to assassinate President Chung Hee Park of South Korea in Seoul.

At Seoul, U. S. Ambassador William J. Porter met Park and discussed the Pueblo's seizure and the assassination attempt, government spokesmen said.

Pak and Smith met at this truce village, beside a creek, near the site where an armistice in 1953 stilled the Korean war and set up a Demilitarized Zone. Panmunjon sits on the dividing line. Pak, in remarks relayed from the conference room by loudspeaker to newsmen, accused the Pueblo of having committed "intolerable provocations."

Nine In Seoul Plot Killed

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — While the Unied States massed a show of force off North Korea in an attempt to obtain the release of the captured U.S. Navy ship Pueblo, South Korean troops reported today they had killed nine more North Korean commandos who invaded Seoul Sunday in an attempt to assassinate President Chung Hee Park and other high officials.

This made a total of 15 of the 31-man band of assassins reported killed, and one more has been captured. The hunt for the other 15 continued.

Pieces Of B52, Radioactive Ice Found By H-Bomb Search Party

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Searchers found plane fragments and slight radioactivity at the crash scene of a U.S. B52 bomber on frozen North Star Bay, Greenland, but no parts of the H-bombs it carried, the Pentagon reported today.

Arctic darkness and 27 below zero cold limited the initial survey to two hours at midday yesterday, the Defense Department said. The Air Force searchers were unable to tell whether any parts of the giant nuclear bomber had burned into or through the bay's 6 to 9 foot ice.

The radioactivity encountered was "light, fixed and closely confined," and consisted of "alpha particles," the Pentagon spokesman said.

Alpha radiation could indicate that one or more A-bomb triggers of the H-bombs aboard

Novato's Bonds Lose; Ross Votes Tax Boost

Town's Budget Rescued

Ross voters approved a 50-cent increase in the general tax rate yesterday to relieve the town's financial squeeze.

The vote was 510-385. Sixty-eight per cent of the community's 1,400 registered voters turned out. Only a simple majority was required for passage.

NEW RATE $1.50

The general obligation tax rate now will be $1.50 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The vote in the town's two precincts was: Winship Park, 72-56. out of 200 registerd voters, and Ross School, 426-324, with 1.200 registered voters. Absentees balloted 12-5 in favor of the increase.

Voters rejected an identical tax increase last June by a vote of 318-298.

That defeat placed the town in financial straits and the council borrowed $50,000 from Wells Fargo Bank to support the town until property tax revenues came in.

CUTBACKS AVERTED

The town council warned residents that failure to pass the measure this time would mean severe operating cutbacks. These included reducing around-the-clock police patrols to 12 hours, cutting the street crew to one man and shutting off street lights from midnight to 8 a.m.

Councilmen said working capital had reached a "dangerous low." The town's current budget is $195,318.

Mayor Frederick Allen, applauding the vote, said it is "quite obvious that the people have confidence in what we're trying to do."

He said the increase would carry the town a "long time."

The measure was supported by the 200-member Ross Property Owners Association. The smaller Property Rights Association neither endorsed nor opposed it.

John Chase, board chairman of the property owners group, said the increase "allows the town quite a considerable operating margin," but said the council had "the task of rebuilding the surplus account to an adequate level."

"I was uncertain about it (the tax rate) the first time I was asked about it," said Dwight Coddington, chairman of the Property Rights Association, "but I feel now it really was needed."

$5,000 RINGS FOUND

Gem Dandy Hunt In Garbage Dump

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — A prayer to St. Anthony, patron saint of lost things, and uncanny luck in a sea of garbage has Mrs. Helen Huebner smiling again today.

Three rings valued at $5,000 slipped into her garbage last Thursday and she discovered the loss minutes after the garbage was picked up. The garbage truck was driven to a dump where Mrs. Huebner, her son and two neighbors pawed sloppily through 20 tons of garbage.

Her jade dinner ring was found Friday. On Sunday, her four-diamond wedding ring was spotted gleaming in a grapefruit rind.

Mrs. Huebner went to church yesterday and prayed to St. Anthony. A few minutes later she and her son arrived at the dump. They found a third ring — a five-diamond engagement band—resting on a wilted lettuce leaf.

Case's False Bottom Full Of Asian Drug

A Larkspur woman went to San Francisco Airport last night to pick up a suitcase from Pakistan, and was promptly arrested. Customs inspectors said they found 13 pounds of hashish in a false bottom of the suitcase.

They arrested Mrs. Clara Davenport, on open narcotics charges, and later picked up her husband. He was sent briefly to Napa State Hospital last March after rolling around on a front lawn in Larkspur screaming that he was Jesus Christ and that the salvation of the world was near.

Davenport, 28, told Larkspur police at the time that it was his "39th LSD trip and the worst one."

The customs agent in charge at San Francisco airport Frank Long, said the Davenports hadn't been to Pakistan. He would not divulge who sent them the suitcase. The couple, who gave their address as Royal Ark Boardwalk, Larkspur, were to be arraigned today before the U.S. Commissioner in San Francisco.

Customs Inspector Michael Keller said the heft of the suitcase didn't feel right after he emptied out the clothing. He found a half-inch false bottom, lined with 13 pounds of hashish in bricks. It is a concentrated form of marijuana.

He said Mrs. Davenport declared she didn't know anything about the suitcase, addressed to her husband. Keller said the husband waited outside in the car for his wife, but left when she didn't return. He was picked up and booked on the open narcotics charge with his wife.

Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark said Davenport "raised hell" in Larkspur last March 19 while apparently on LSD.

Police said they received five phone calls from people who saw Davenport dashing about their neighborhood. One man said Davenport hit him in the jaw. A woman said she saw him praying in a tennis court.

A mand said Davenport was nude and sereaming and rolling on the ground and had tried to steal his Volkswagen. Police said when they found Davenport he was yelling that he was Jesus Christ and that the salvation of the world was near.

They handcuffed him, but he ran away and they had to catch him. The Larkspur police sent him to Napa State Hospital for 72 hours for observation.

17-YEAR-OLD GETS COUNTY PLANS SEAT

SANTA CRUZ (UPI) — A boy was appointed yesterday to the Santa Cruz County Planning Commission.

The appointment of Tom Noble, 17, Watsonville, was made by the board of supervisors on the recommendation of Supervisor Henry Mello.

"Our population is becoming younger with each passing year," Mello said. "I believe it is time to involve our youth in the governmental decision-making process."

Watsonville teachers said Noble would be excused from classes so he can attend meetings, but he will have to make up his work.

Streets, Rec Plan Rejected

Both street and park bond issues in Novato went down to defeat in yesterday's election.

The $5,750,000 street bond proposition drew a 55.1 per cent favorable vote—but the $2,250,000 park bonds drew only 42.5 per cent favorable vote. Both failed to get the necessary two-thirds majority vote.

The unofficial tally was: Streets, 1,961 yes; 1,599 no; parks, 1,512 yes to 2,045 no.

The voting at the special election drew nearly half of the registered voters. Of the 7,418 registered, 3,566 cast ballots or 48.1 per cent.

Only one precinct, that of Pleasant Valley with 66.8 per cent favoring the streets, gave the two-thirds majority approval.

Voting by precinct for streets was: Community House, yes 176, no 269; Pacheco Schoo, yes 60, no, 97; Hill School, yes 154, no 174; Rancho School, yes 289, no 183; Marion School, yes 198, no 225; Lynwood School, yes 358, no 220; Pleasant Valley School, yes, 431, no 214; Lu Sutton School, yes 274, no 205; and absentee, yes 21, no 12.

Voting by precincts for parks was: Community House, yes 130, no 316; Pacheco School, yes 45, no 112; Hill School, yes 120, no 208; Rancho School yes, 216:, no 257; Marion School, yes 162, no 258: Lynwood School, yes 268, no 309; Pleasant Valley School yes 350, no 295; Lu Sutton School, yes 204, no 274; and absentee, yes 17, no 16.

Oswald's Widow Is Called By Garrison

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The widow of Lee Harvey Oswald was subpoenaed for grand jury testimony today by Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who doubts Warren Commission findings that Oswald alone assassinated President John F. Kennedy.

Garrison's office issued the subpoena for Marina Oswald Porter, now of Richardson, Tex., a Dallas suburb, to appear here Feb. 8-9 as part of Garrison's controversial probe into the assassination.

GOP Calls Johnson's Viet Policy A Defeatist Attitude

REPUBLICANS REPLY TO JOHNSON'S STATE OF UNION
Rep. George Bush of Texas joins in report on issues
(AP Wirephoto)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional Republicans charge that gradualism and vacillation by President Johnson have prolonged the Vietnam war. On the home front, the GOP says administration policies have failed to combat mounting crime and inflation.

In their answer to President Johnson's State of the Union message, the Republicans called for "military success" in the war based on "effective utilization" of U.S. air and sea power.

HIT SPENDING

Th GOP spokesmen also renewed calls for reductions in federal spending and a transfer of programs from the national government to states and localities.

The Republican reply, featuring nine House members and eight senators, was carried live last night on the CBS radio-television network.

Republican governors, numbering 26 of the nation's 50, were not included in the presentation, which was introduced by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and had Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., as master of ceremonies.

An audience of Republican congressmen and senators in the auditorium of a Senate office building clapped enthusiastically before and after each speech, interrupting more than 50 times with applause.

DIRKSEN ILL

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who has given the line of attack in previous years on the war issue was absent because of illness. Sen. John G. Tower carried the GOP banner on the war issue.

The Texas Republican accused the Johnson administration of following what he termed "a self-defeating policy of gradualism" which he said "caused us to pull our punches; it prolonged the fighting; it cost American lives unnecessarily.

Tower said Republicans stand for "military success in Vietnam that will enable the Vietnamese to rebuild a free nation," for "effective utilization of America's vast air and sea superiority" and for "quarantine of the enemy's supply lines so that he can no longer fight."

Sen. Peter H. Dominick, R-Colo., charged: "This administration has developed a strange new doctrine—that Soviet strategic equality is better than American supremacy."

LEADERSHIP RAP

Housee Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford cited President Johnson's figure of speech camparing the nation with a ship heading through troubled waters and said, "The ship of state is wallowing in a storm-tossed sea, drifting toward the rocks of domestic diaster beaten by the waves of worldwide fiscal crisis that threaten shipwreck."

Ford said Americans have seen "raging violence, bloodshed destruction and death right on their own doorsteps" and Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., commented that "the cities are boiling with frustration."

Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., attacked what he called administration failures to combat crime.

Despite warnings by FBI director J. Edgar Hoover and local law enforcement officers, Poff said, "the Johnson administration has failed to take effective action."

None of the GOP speakers presented proposals in the civil rights field, although Murphy mentioned the matter at one point and said Sen. Edward R. Brooke, R-Mass. only Negro member of the Senate, would have talked on the subject had he not been touring Africa.

In line with the GOP plan of emphasizing some of their new faces, the principal argument on spending and taxes came from Texas freshman Rep. George Bush, member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

Anti-NATO Danes Win Election

Krag

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Denmark's Socialist government resigned today after defeat in the national election, opening a period of intense political maneuvering with the key position held by a party opposed to Danish membership in NATO.

Premier Jens Otto Krag lost his working majority in Parliament when his Social Democratic party lost six seats and the allied Peoples Socialists lost three in yesterday's national election.

Krag had called the election to seek approval of an austerity program to check inflation.

Now holding the key to power is the radical Liberals with an increase of 13 seats in Parliament.

The radical Liberals undoubtedly will try to make anti-NATO capital out of the crash Sunday in Greenland-Danish territory — of a U.S. B52 bomber with four hydrogen bombs aboard.

Rep. Halleck Decides Not To Run Again

REP. CHARLES A. HALLECK
GOP veteran to step down

MONTICELLO, Ind. (AP) — Rep. Charles A. Halleck, who has served both as majority and minority leader during his 33 years as a Republican member of the House, says he will retire at the end of the session.

"Without dramatics let me tell you simply that I am not going to run for re-election. The time has come to turn over the job to a young man," Halleck announced last night at a Republican committee meeting. He is 67.

"I could have called a press conference in Washington," Halleck said, "but here is where I belong."

He said he and his wife, the former Blanche White of Indianapolis, will continue to make their home In Rensselaer.

"I'm going to start spending more time doing the things I like to do, like fishing, hunting and golfing," Halleck said.

With his departure, Congress is losing one of its most colorful and toughest members and one of its most battle-scarred veterans.

A native of Jasper County, Halleck began his political career there in 1924 with election as prosecuting attorney. He won re-election four times and then in 1935 won a special election to succeed Rep. Frederick Landis, R-Ind.

Halleck came into the spotlight in 1940 with a dramatic address in Philadelphia, nominat- Wendell L. Willkie for president.

Halleck became a protege of former Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts and in 1946 was chosen chairman of the influential congressional campaign committee. Halleck was majority leader when Martin served as speaker in 1947-48 and 1953-54.

A master political tactician, Halleck became former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's legislative right hand and was chosen by Eisenhower to make his nominating speech at San Francisco in 1956.

Lawmaker's Aide Slain

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The secretary of Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan was beaten to death with a blunt instrument in her home yesterday — a few hours after deciding to stay home because of a sore throat.

The bloodied body of Mrs. Miriam Martin, 41, was found by her 9-year-old son Chris when he returned from school to the family's three-bedroom home in North Highlands.

Sacramento sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Martin suffered 40 blows on the head from a "substantial instrument." Her right wrist was broken, indicating she put up a fierce struggle, deputies said.

Mrs. Martin, who had worked several years for Democratic Assemblyman Ryan of South San Francisco, died in a hospital an hour after her son found her sprawled on the floor.

WAYNE HATHAWAY
Enters Novato race

Hathaway Hat In Ring For Novato Council

Wayne Hathaway, unsuccessful candidate for the Novato City Council two years ago, today announced that he would run for one of the three positions on the council in the April 9 municipal elections.

He was the fourth Novatan to announce his candidacy.

Mayor J. Wayne Womack and Councilman Douglas M. Merrill, incumbents have said that they will seek reelection. Joseph D. Gargiulo, principal of North Marin High School, has announced that he will run. Councilman William Jack Adams, whose term also is expiring, has said that he will not seek reelection.

Hathaway, 33, of 75 Crescent Lane, Novato, is assistant vice president of the Marin County Savings and Loan Association. He has worked for the Central Valley National Bank in Novato.

He has served on the Novato Planning Commission for five years, being chairman of it for two years. He is also a member of the plan review committee and the downtown study committee. Ha was Novato's first city treasurer.

He is a member of the Novato Chamber of Commerce, former diredtor of the Marin Development Association, former director of the Novato Kiwanis Club and a former elder-trustee of the Novato Presbyterian Church.

He is a native of Rome, N.Y. He and his wife, Ruby, have three children, Lynn, 12, Claire, 9, and Lois, 5.

Larkspur Denies Liquor Sign Plan

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night denied application of Ad-Art Inc. for a 10-foot liquor sign near the front entrance of the Safeway store at Bon Air Road, asserting there was insufficient need.

The commission continued until its 8 p.m. meeting Feb. 13 at City Hall a review of parking space provided at Dollars 'N Sense, 110 Magnolia Avenue. A variance to change a storage area to a retail sales area was granted Nov. 28 on condition that Mrs. R. J. Merret provide adequate parking space.

A traffic count on Via Casitas was ordered prior to the Feb. 13 meeting to determine if there is sufficient reason for making a portion of the street one-way.

Texan Denies Joy Ride Count

Philip H. Coit, 19, of Dallas, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to charges of joy riding and car tampering.

Coit was originally accused of stealing the car of Bonnie Piecznski of 57 Spruce Road, Fairfax, after his arrest by Fairfax police April 7.

The district attorney amended his complaint to the misdemeanor charges yesterday because of Coit's age, according to Deputy Dist. Atty. Joshua Thomas.

Jury trial for Coit was scheduled for May 28.

Fairfax Underground Utility Study Opens

A committee studying placement of utilities underground in Fairfax met for the first time last night and agreed to formulate an underground utilities ordinance.

Committee members will meet again at 8 p.m., Feb. 20 at the Fairfax Women's Club. Mrs. Dorothy Olson was elected chairman of the group appointed by the city council. Other members are planning commissioners Hugh O. Winn and E. Ross Parkerson, City Admin. David J. Sumbardo, Roy Arbini and Robert F. Raab.

Heavy Red Shelling Of Marine Garrison

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnamese troops hit the mountain-rimmed U.S. Marine garrison at Khe Sanh with a massive artillery barrage tonight for the first time. The heavy shells struck as military spokesmen reported the Communists grouping for their biggest offensive of the war.

U.S. spokesmen said the Communist offensive by up to 40,000 men appeared to be aimed at capturing the two northernmost provinces of South Vietnam and driving the Americans to the negotiating table,

They had warned the offensive could start before Monday and the truce marking Tet, the Chinese New Year.

The Communists had used mortars and rockets against the Khe Sanh positions but a spokesman said they used 50 millimeter (about six-inch) artillery for the first time and hit the American positions from the heights with 150 rounds.

There was no immediate report of damages or casualties.

A spokesman disclosed the North Vietnamese had sent two divisions of as many as 20,000 men into the Khe Sanh area through Laos, four miles to the west, despite day and night bombardments by Marine artillery and a record number of strikes by B52 bombers and fighter-bombers.

The past three days have been extraordinarily clear, however, and planes have pounded the Reds without letup.

Before tonight's artillery bombardment the Americans and evacuated South Vietnamese—and some Laotian refugees—from 12 villages around Khe Sanh which is surrounded by mountains, as was the French fortress of Dien Bien Phu.

The Americans have reacted with the heaviest air strikes of the war and heavy naval bombardments from 7th Fleet ships off the coast.

U.S. planes flew a record 690 sorties in South Vietnam on yesterday, most of them against the Khe Sanh area.

and wounded seven, including an army colonel shot today as he led his men in an encounter on Mt. Nokosan, 10 miles north of Seoul. The colonel's unit killed four Communists, and one escaped.

Farther north of Seoul, in the western sector of the demilitarized zone, three American soldiers were slightly wounded early today in an exchange of fire with four North Koreans infiltrating south through the barrier fence along the truce zone.

There was no report of North Korean casualties.

The daring commando invasion of Seoul and the capture of the Pueblo yesterday were the most serious in an escalating series of attacks charged by the South Koreans and their American allies against the North Koreans. The U.N. Command in Korea recently reported to the Security Council that the North Koreans had initiated 543 incidents of violence during the first 10 months of 1967, compared with 50 such incidents in all of 1966.

There has been speculation that North Korea's purpose is to divert U.S. forces from the Vietnam war. The North Korean regime has repeatedly called on other Communist governments to aid North Vietnam.

Police Examine Would-Be Drug

San Rafael police were today examining 18 capsules of suspected LSD taken from a 14-year-old boy at Continuation School in San Rafael.

Officers were called there yesterday when the boy was seen giving a capsule to a classmate.

The boy told police the capsule contained talcum powder "to test the reaction of the class" but he had a bottle containing another 18 capsules he said were LSD. They were in tinfoil.

The pills were given him in San Francisco, he said, by an identified man who told him: "Have a fine trip."

Police said the 14-year-old boy had $56 in his pockets.

To Higher Court

Richard Bruce Schwartz, 22, of San Francisco, was certified to Superior Court yesterday after a Marin Municipal Court hearing on a charge that he stole the car of Robert J. Topham of 26 Ray Court, San Rafael Jan. 16. He is to appear in the higher court Monday.

lites, both Soviet and American, whirling about the earth with almost unbelievably accurate cameras and "ferret" listening devices for eavesdropping on radio communications.

There are unmanned drones with sensitive information-gathering equipment. There are destroyers carrying "black boxes" which slip close to hostile shores to intercept radio talk, record coded messages and pick up other information. One of the two U.S. destroyers involved in the historic Tonkin Gulf attack by North Vietnamese patrol boats in August 1964 reportedly had been on such a mission.

The United States and Soviet Union, say nothing about what they know of the other side's electronic snooping from space.

Members of Congress also have expressed alarm about increasingly active Soviet naval snooping.

Soviet trawlers have been reported standing off Polaris submarine bases at Holy Loch, Scotland, at Rota, Spain, Guam, and Charleston, S.C.

The Red trawlers monitored U.S. nuclear weapons tests in the Pacific in 1962.

U.S. vessels have taken positions in the Pacific to observe the re-entry and splashdown of Soviet intercontinental ballistic missiles fired into the mid-Pacific.

A Soviet intelligence-gathering trawler, the Anemometer, collided with a U.S. intelligence ship, the Banner, in the Sea of Japan in June 1966.

The 935-ton Pueblo is one of three of her class, all converted light cargo vessels.

BOMBS

the plane disintegrated in the crash.

The Pentagon has stressed repeatedly since the crash of the Stratofortress near Thule Sunday that there is no danger of a nuclear explosion. It has not contradicted reports there were four H-bombs aboard.

"It is possible that the aircraft exploded as a result of the impact, according to the survey team, since most of the parts of the plane found by the team are in small fragments in and around the burn area," the report said.

A team of nuclear scientists from Denmark, which owns Greenland, was en route to the crash site to join atomic experts from the United States.

Nuclear weapons are a strongly controversial issue in Denmark and the B52 incident may have figured in elections yesterday which toppled the left Democrat Jens Otto Krag.

Mental Test Slated For Murder Suspect

Jose Reymundo, accused of murdering his estranged wife, Mayoma, 46, of Homestead Valley, is to have a psychiatric examination, ordered today at a San Francisco Superior Court hearing.

Reymundo is to appear in court Department 21 at 10 a.m. Feb. 5 for the psychiatrist's report and to enter a plea to the charge of stabbing his wife to death in a San Francisco parking lot Dec. 29 in an argument over family finances. Mrs. Reymundo resided at 159 Linden Lane, Homestead Valley.

SHIP

dispatch planes or ships to his rescue. The vessel with 83 men aboard was taken to the port of Wonsan.

North Korea said today it has no intention of releasing the ship, rejecting a U. S. demand for prompt return of the ship, loaded with sophisticated eavesdropping gear.

The nuclear powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise, spearheading an American task force sent to the crisis area, moved to position off the Korean coast while U. S. diplomats tried through the Soviet Union and other channels to secure the return of the Pueblo and its men.

Four of the crewmen were injured in the hijacking, the Pentagon reported. One was said to be hurt critically. One of the major unanswered questions —one of several which congressional leaders and others were asking — was how they got hurt.

North Korea has said its boats fired on the Pueblo, saying the Pueblo fired first. The Pentagon has insisted that the Pueblo, armed only with two 50-caliber machine guns, did not use its weapons.

Questions were also raised as to whether or how much of the secret intelligence equipment and recording tapes aboard the craft were destroyed before the ship fell into Communist hands.

One source said the four injured crewmen "undoubtedly" were making a last minute effort to destroy the equipment as Communist invaders overran the ship.

The Navy said, however, there was no way of knowing whether the secret equipment was destroyed. It was assumed the skipper gave the order to push the "destruct" buttons at the same time he called for help, but messages from the Pueblo did not mention this.

As for the 105-minute lapse between the time the Pueblo was first challenged (the Pentagon said the first Communist boat threatened to shoot if the Pueblo did not heave to) and the time the captain asked for help, an analysis of radio messages from the ship revealed it was at approximately the same spot both times.

Even if the skipper did not realize during this period that his ship was in danger, questions were raised as to why higher military officials with whom he was in contact did not recognize the seriousness of the situation and send help.

U. S. jets at airfields in South Korea could have reached the scene in less than half an hour.

The Communists, in a face-to-face confrontation at the Panmunjom truce village on the boundary line between North and South Korea, brushed aside U. S. demands for prompt return of the vessel and her crew.

"The ship will remain in our hands," Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Kuk of North Korea said. Pak also said several Americans were "killed and wounded" in yesterday's ship capture.

The Defense Department, however, said it knew only of the four crewmen injured —one of them critically.

The Navy insisted last night that at no point in the encounter did Pueblo fire her two .50-caliber machine guns when boarded Monday night by North Korea gunboat crewmen.

There was no firm indication from Pueblo's last radio messages how her crewmen were injured. The vessel made no mention of any gunfire from the North Koreans.

But this did not preclude a hand-to-hand struggle on the ship when the Communists boarded her.

President Johnson and his top military and diplomatic advisers were closely following developments in the first boarding and seizure of a seagoing American naval vessel in more than a century. A Security Council session, the first since Nov. 29, was called for today.

FUTURE KENTFIELD FIRE STATION

Bids will be opened Feb. 5 for the new Kentfield fire station to be constructed at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and College Avenue. The station, expected to cost about $200,000, will have sleeping quarters for 16 firemen, three offices, a study and club room, kitchen, alarm room, maintenance shop and garage. To the right in the drawing is the Marin County sheriff's substation. Architects are Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Weghe of San Francisco.

Slope Held A Danger To Health Center

Marin Hospital District Board last night threatened a lawsuit if Greenbrae developer Niels Schultz Jr. does not correct steep fill he has placed east of the new Community Mental Health Center.

Soils engineers told the directors the safety of the fill is marginal and might produce a "potential for a very massive deep slide" causing damage to the mental health center.

Attorney Richard M. Sangster, advising the directors because their lawyer, Harold F. Riede, has represented Schultz in the past, said Schultz is legally liable for any damage.

District directors told Sangster to begin negotiating with Schultz, but to do it cautiously.

"Mr. Schultz has shown himself time and time again to be a friend of the district," noted Irving D. Chapman, board vice president.

"If at all possible, we should maintain our relationship as it exists," said President Marion C. Ibach.

Schultz's $2,000 was the first money donated for the construction of the new mental health center, according to Jules Becker, district public relations consultant.

The board agreed with Sangster that serious negotiations must begin on the fill within a month. If they are not, he said, the following legal remedies should be taken:

A suit for damages and any remedies for protecting district property.

An injunction against the developer, preventing him from further filling on the slope.

A court order requiring Schultz to abate the nuisance by removing the fill or requiring him to place protective structures around the fill to protect the slope.

A suit to recover costs of soils engineering fees and attorney's fees incurred by the district because of the filling.

Marin Hospital District Board also:

CONTRACT — Sent to contracting doctors a slightly revised agreement for providing 24-hour doctor's care in the hospital emergency room.

ADMINISTRATION — Formally agreed that administration of the mental health center should be under its direction.

GIFT — Learned of an anonymous $10,000 donation for Marin General Hospital's cardiopulmonary department.

CONTRACT — Continued until an adjourned meeting Feb. 6 decision on bids for the interior design of the mental health center.

DEBTS — Wrote off $16,222 owed Marin General Hospital by former patients as bad debts for the months of September through December. It was .84 per cent of the hospital's revenue.

Cong Release Two U.S. Men

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. officials announced today that the Viet Cong had released two American servicemen who had been taken prisoner in South Vietnam.

A spokesman identified the two released captives as Marine Cpl. Jose Agosto Santos and Army Pfc. Luis Ortiz-Rivera. The spokesman said Agosto Santos had been held by the Viet Cong since May 14, 1967, and Ortiz-Rivera had been a captive since Dec. 21, 1966.

The spokesman said both men were released yesterday near Tam Ky, on the coast 350 miles northeast of Saigon.

Salary Hikes For Staffers At Hospital

Marin Hospital District trustees last night raised salaries at Marin General Hospital at a cost of $133,560 a year, but promised there will be no accompanying room rate increase.

Hospital administrator Ray K. Bolinger said $100,000 of the cost can be absorbed by the district's last room rate increase and the remainder can be accommodated through profits from a higher-than-expected hospital occupancy.

The last rate increase included $100,000 for non-recurring equipment and building expenses, he said. This year, that money can be used for the higher salaries.

Included in the salary raises were:

An increase from 20 to 25 days vacation for management personnel after 10 years service.

Extension of an employee's probationary period from 90 days to six months.

An agreement to review salaries of newly hired personnel six months after their hiring and at yearly intervals.

The monthly retainer for Harold F. Riede, attorney for the district, was increased from $600 to $700.

Licensed nurses received 12 cents an hour pay raise, while the head nurse's salary increased 15 cents an hour. At the lowest level, nurses will earn from $600 to $660 a month. The head nurse will earn from $700 to $825 a month.

ISTANBUL (UPI) — Turkish authorities today held Col. Ibrahim E. Rubai, Syrian military attache, on espionage charges the Interior Ministry said. Syrian Ambassador Edip Asfari denied that Rubai, who began his duties only two weeks before his arrest Tuesday, is a spy.

Brown, Unruh Labeled Tax Payment Villains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly Republican leaders today blamed Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and former Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown for the $1.01 billion in additional taxes Californians must pay this year.

Assembly Minority Leader Rorbert T. Monagan, R-Tracy, and Assemblyman Don Mulford, R-Piedmont, called a news conference to say that the state's current fiscal troubles were caused by the former governor and the Democratic Assembly speaker — who has emerged as Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan's leading foe.

Ired by Unruh's efforts to blame the governor for the all-time high tax increase voted by the legislature last year, the two said:

"Efforts are already being made in this election year to blame Republicans for the tax increase, but the facts reveal that it was, indeed the responsibility of the Unruh-Brown policy of spending state money the state did not have."

Last year, the legislature, with Democrats and Republicans joining forces, passed a bill increasing taxes $944 million in the 1967-68 fiscal year and $1.01 billion in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Reagan asked for the money to make up a $576 million deficit in the budget he submitted for the 1967-68 fiscal year; to pay off a $194 million cash debt left over from the Brown administration; provide additional school aid and finance $155 million in local property tax reductions for the 1968-69 fiscal year.

At the time of passage, Republican legislative leaders, administration aides and Unruh worked together to push the bill through the legislature, and Mulford told reporters "the governor is throwing his full weight behind this."

But now, Mulford and Monagan said the big hike was due to the "red ink" policies of the "Unruh-Brown Democratic administration." Their statement did not mention the fact that Brown and Unruh were constantly fighting during Brown's last year in office.

Mulford and Monagan said $701 million of the additional taxes to be raise this year "are the direct result of the spending policies of the Unruh-Brown administration."

The two legislators recalled Reagan's criticisms of the former Brown administration when they said he had found costs exceeding revenues by $457 million in the 1966-67 fiscal year when he took office.

In addition, they said, there was an additional $50 million in costs "based on the average growth of state spending.

Pornography Curbs Plan Faces Fight

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's program to keep girlie magazines, nudie movies and other pornography away from the young was proposed today in the Legislature.

The legislative package is basically unchanged from the one lawmakers rejected last year and is expected to meet the same fate this session.

The legislation would make it a misdemeanor for anyone — except his parent — to supply a person under 18 years of age with "harmful matter."

Such matter is defined as that which, on the whole, predominently appeals to "prurient, shameful or morbid interests of minors in nudity, sex or sexually deviant practices," is offensive by contemporary adult standards and is of slight redeeming social importance to minors.

The legislation would sweep over the broad spectrum of pornography in California, described last year in a report by Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch as the nation's leading source of obscenity.

The state's obscenity industry grosses an estimated $19 million annually, the report said.

The antipornography program, backed by Lynch and pushed by Reagan since he took office, faces traditional opposition from those who fear censorship and infringement on constitutional freedom of speech guarantees.

But, as Reagan said in his "state of the state" address to the Legislature Jan. 9, the legislation should avoid "any taint of censorship."

Burns Fails To Overturn Judiciary Panel's Authority

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate's Democratic leader has failed in a move to break the Republican - dominated Senate Judiciary Committee into two committees and thus weaken its authority.

President pro tem Hugh M. Burns' effort was rejected on the floor 20-19 yesterday as two Democrats sided with near-unanimous Republican opposition. A 21 - vote majority was needed in the 40-member house.

After the right vote, Burns said he doesn't plan to press the issue further.

"We've lived with the Judiciary Committee for 100 and some odd years," he said. "It will be changed eventually."

He added that he planned to reappoint Republican Sen. Donald Grunsky of Watsonville as committee chairman although Grunsky spearheaded opposition to the Burns committee-dividing plan.

"Reprisals are a great thing, but you can't foul up your committees," said Burns.

Burns proposed breaking up the 13-member committee into two seven-member ones: a Criminal Procedure Committee to consider criminal law legislation — counterpart of an Assembly committee of the same name — and a civil law committee which would retain the name Judiciary Committee.

Burns said the work load had grown too much for one committee.

Finch Sees Withholding Policy Shift

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan says he opposes state income tax withholding in principle and practice, but Lt. Gov. Robert Finch says the governor's position is not fixed.

Finch, who supports withholding, said he believes Reagan is no longer "unalterably opposed" to it.

But Finch said at a news conference yesterday he doesn't know whether the governor would sign a withholding system bill if the Legislature approved one.

Reagan has said he remains opposed to withholding "not only in principle but because it's a convenience to the state but not to the taxpayer."

Finch said the system is fair and needed, adding, "I think we've got to come to it eventually."

Sausalito Plans Vote On Water Line Loan

A four-year plan to spend $60,000 for the city's share of a $150,000 water line improvement program is to be proposed to Sausalito voters at the April 9 municipal election.

The Sausalito City Council last night agreed to meet next Tuesday if necessary to take first legal steps to put the measure on the ballot.

GRANT HOPES

City Mgr. George M. Patterson said the city will apply for a grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for half of the $150,000 for a four-year project.

Of the remaining $75,000, the city would get approximately $20,000 in matching funds from the Marin Municipal Water District and other local bodies, then borrow the rest and budget $13,750 a year plus interest for four years to pay off the debt.

A two-thirds majority of the voters must approve the plan to borrow the city's share of the cost. Patterson said the $13,750 a year is less than the city is now spending yearly on a slower schedule of water main improvements.

Patterson cautioned there is no assurance HUD will grant the funds, but the council agreed the city attorney should start necessary steps to put the issue on the ballot April 9, saving the cost of a special election.

The council approved mid-year requests by Fire Chief Charles E. Masten and Police Chief Edward S. Kreins for an additional man each. Salaries for one more patrolman and one more fireman will total $4,900 for the rest of this fiscal year, and the total cost per year including overhead will be $16,300, Patterson reported.

Kreins said the extra patrolman was needed immediately and said he will ask for two more men at budget hearings this summer. The department has 2,674 hours of accumulated overtime, Kreins, said, with the total continuing to rise because it is short-handed.

Masten, whose department got two more men last year, said with the fireman approved last night the department would not ask for more men for 1968-9.

PARK GIVEN

The 8,342-square-foot park promised the city during last fall's library site election campaign was delivered last night by Madden and Lewis, Inc., and MacMarin Inc. The companies turned over a grant deed to the city for the city-owned waterfront property on which they hald a lease until 2002. The deed is conditioned on the parcel remaining in use as a park.

The council also passed five resolutions initiating an assessment district for street and sewer improvements on Sausalito Boulevard.

Officer Hired By Academy

Alfred F. Daubenfeld, a retired Army lieutenant colonel, has been employed by the San Rafael Military Academy to teach social studies and government.

He resides at 104 San Gabriel Drive, Fairfax, with his wife and three children.

Daubenfeld completed his military career in 1962 after service in Europe, New Guinea, Korea and Japan.

He received a master's degree in history from San Francisco State College last year and has been teaching in Marin County public schools. He is a graduate of Loyola University, Chicago, with a law degree and practiced as an attorney in Illinois prior to World War II.

He replaces Dr. James Rhoades, who has been appointed director of admissions at the academy.

Civic Building Proposals Heard By Sausalito Council

The Sausalito City Council last night discussed the city's building needs at length, but took no action.

City Mgr. George M. Patterson gave detailed reports on the needs for the fire station, police station, library and city hall.

Easiest problem, Patterson said, is the fire station. The present location of the main station is a good one, and plans are to expand the station on an adjoining vacant lot for an estimated $50,000.

Patterson suggested the possibility of building a civic center on the Bridgeway-Johnson-Caledonia Street triangle now housing the fire station, but only as one of several possibilities.

Cost estimates for remodeling and expanding the present second story library are $200,000, Patterson said. He offered as other possible library sites the Village Fair parking lot, Northwestern Pacific Railroad property bayward of Bridgeway and Johnson Street, and land owned by Sausalito Properties, Inc., which Patterson said could be leased.

If city hall stays in the present building, Patterson recommended remodeling to provide better work flow and to make use of 1,100 square feet formerly used by the police department and now used for storage.

The police building at Johnson and Caledonia streets could be expanded by a one-story addition on an adjoining vacant lot, Patterson said, and the building and two adjoining houses could be lease-purchased for no more than the city is now paying in rent.

Pike's Peak is in Colorado.

Sen. McCarthy's Wife Wins Divorce Decree

State Sen. John F. McCarthy, 44, and his wife, Ursula, of San Rafael, dissolved their 19-year marriage late yesterday in a Marin County version of the quickie divorce.

Mrs. McCarthy, 44, filed for divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty shortly before the closing of the Marin County Clerk's Office.

One floor up in the county courthouse, she and her attorney, Natalie Holly of San Rafael, found Superior Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson available for a five minute divorce hearing.

The Senator "drank to excess" and was "belligerent and mean" before their seven children and friends, Mrs. McCarthy told the judge.

Judge Wilson issued an interlocutory decree of divorce with terms based on a marital settlement the senator and his wife had signed with their attorneys Jan. 12.

The senator and his wife, who married in San Francisco Nov. 22, 1947, were awarded joint legal custody of their five sons and two daughters, aged 8 to 19.

Judge Wilson awarded physical custody of the children to Mrs. McCarthy and ordered the senator to pay $1,125 a month alimony to his wife and $875 a month support to his children.

According to mutual agreement, Mrs. McCarthy was awarded the family home at 21 Pepper Way, San Rafael.

For community property, she also received 20 shares of Anaconda Co. capital stock, 200 shares of Homestead Savings and Loan stock, 29 shares of North American Life and Casualty Co. stock and 25 shares of stock in the Bank of Marin.

The senator was allowed to keep all title to McCarthy Loch Lomond Marina, Inc., Robert McCarthy Co., and unimproved property in Greenbrae, on San Pedro Road and in the Corte Madera Tidelands.

Judge Wilson ordered the senator to pay his wife's attorney's fees of $1,850.

Mrs. McCarthy said, in her suit for divorce, that McCarthy treated her with extreme cruelty and, as a result, she has suffered and become ill and nervous.

They separated July 1, 1967, she said.

Surveyor 7 Due To Hibernate In Lunar Cold

PASADENA, (AP) — Two weeks and 21,000 pictures after landing on a rugged lunar slope, Surveyor 7 blinked its camera eye at the setting sun and awaited a frigid rest.

Its performance capped a moon exploration program in which five of seven Surveyors landed gently and returned more than 86,000 photographs to help in choosing astronaut landing sites.

Controllers at Jet Propulsion Laboratory planned today to operate the three-legged surveyor another day or two as lunar night temperatures drop to more than 250 degrees below zero.

Then the craft will remain dormant until the sun reappears in two weeks and scientists try to stir its machinery into action again.

Redwood Boosters Schedule Convention

The Redwood Empire Association, a travel promotion group serving nine Northern California counties including Marin, will have its 48th annual convention in Crescent City, Del Notre County, in September.

President Edwin A. Frediani said the precise convention dates will be set shortly. The association's last convention in Crescent City was in 1964, he said.

Mrs. Reagan Off Art Board

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's wife, pressed with "family and state obligations," has resigned from the California Arts Commission.

Nancy Reagan was named by the Governor to the 15-member advisory commission last August and carried to the group an emphasis on California's Spanish heritage and early history.

But with less than a half year of her three-year term completed, Mrs. Reagan resigned yesterday "with deep regret."

Reagan named Mrs. Virginia Y. Stanton, a Carmel Valley Republican to complete Mrs. Reagan's term which ends July 1, 1970. Mrs. Stanton is a product design consultant and a home entertainment writer.

Novato Jaycees Prepare Awards

Three finalists have been chosen for the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce's distinguished service award from a field of eight candidates, according to Jack Whitcomb, chairman of the award committee.

Selected were Carl Jensen, Otto Haiungs and Paul Dock. The winner will be announced at a banquet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Spiro's Red Vest in Novato. Also considered for the award were John Gilmore, Robert Anderson, Jack Whitcomb, Rober Hillman and Eugene McGillicuddy.

Lothar Salin of San Rafael, president of Toastmasters International, will speak at the banquet.

Commute Club Extends Service

The Lucas Valley-Terra Linda Custom Commute Club will start its San Francisco bus service in Lucas Valley Feb. 1.

The bus will start at 6:44 a.m. in Upper Lucas Valley and will arrive in downtown San Francisco at 8 p.m., the club reported.

The service, run by a group of commuters, started in November, 1966, in the Terra Linda area, under the name Custom Commute Club.

Last November the state Public Utilities Commission granted the club permission to extend its run to Lucas Valley.

Those interested in becoming riders should call Richard Rosenberg, 835 Penny Royal Lane, San Rafael.

Conservationists Will Hear Joske

Pierre W. Joske, director of Marin County Parks and Recreation Department, will be one of the speakers at the tenth annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America in Asilomar near Monterey, tomorrow.

Joske will discuss "the impact of local recreation developments on the coastal area."

Joske said he intends to stress the need for local governments to cooperate with private recreational development and to promote agriculture preserves as a means of saving the coastline.

FLOOR TAX SALE

Unlike most advertisers we are not overstocked, nor do we have scads of inventory we must move at all cost, etc., etc.

The fact is we are in good shape inventory wise, and with a good push could have it down to nothing by tax time March 1st. So we are dealin'! We have many tires we bought at bargain prices and we want to move 'em.

People aren't aware of this, but January and February are the two best months to buy tires, because if the dealer is smart, he is dumping his inventory to beat the TAX, plus the fact that the tire selling season starts in March.

NOTE: Please shop for your complete price on these "come on" brake specials. Keep this fact in mind. There isn't one car in thirty that you can simply slap on new brake shoes, without turning drums—replacing seals and etc. So please be careful as it is common for that $20.00 brake special to wind up costing $60.00 or more. NOTE: Cain's averages an hour to an hour and 15 minutes on an alignment. In most cases for a car to be properly aligned it must be shimmed; shims when needed are always included in our price. The reason I'm going into this is, that recently a Tire Company store has moved into Marin County. They advertise a $5.95 alignment. People BEWARE, they can no more properly align a car for $5.95 than you can buy a pound of butter for 30 cents. The gimmick is that once they get your car in the air they scare the devil out of you and sell you a complete front end job, at list price or better. So beware— protect yourself and be certain to ask what your final bill is going to be! But better yet, come see us— we have no time for NONSENSE.

Scouts Award Honors To Two Adult Leaders

Two Marin men were rewarded for their years of volunteer service in boy scouting last night by Silver Beaver awards given by the Marin Council of Boy Scouts.

Recipients were William P. Murray Jr., president of the Bank of Marin, and Charles J. Murray of Ross, an independent insurance agent. The men are not related.

William Murray has been in scouting since 1935, going from Cub Scout to Eagle, the highest rank in Boy Scouts. He has been president for the past two years of the Marin Scout Council, and has been vice president and chairman of finance of the local council and on troop and pack committees. He was vice president of the Sonoma-Mendocino council when he resided in Petaluma.

It's a scouting family — his father, William Murray Sr., was installed last night as treasurer of the Marin council, a post he has held since formation of the council in 1922. His son, William III, was an Eagle Scout. His brother, Theodore, was chairman last year of the Miwok Scout district, consisting of the San Rafael-Novato area.

Charles J. Murray of Ross has been chairman on the Scout council's advancement committee for 15 years and was on the Eagle Scout board of review for 10 years and former chairman. He is on the council's long-range planning committee.

Murray was not a Scout as a youth but has been an adult Scout volunteer for 15 years. A son, Russell, was an Eagle Scout.

The Silver Beaver is the highest honor a local Scout council can award for volunteer work with youths. The awards were made at the annual council recognition dinner last night at Scout Hall, 739 A Street, San Rafael.

James E. Egger of Greenbrae was installed as council president, succeeding William P. Murray Jr. Vice presidents installed were Carroll Walker of San Rafael and Herbert K. Walton Jr. of San Rafael, both reelected; Russell F. Dwyer of Kentfield and Dr. C. Ray Leininger of Greenbrae.

Elmer S. Palmquist of San Anselmo was elected assistant treasurer and Robert A. Roumiguiere of San Rafael was elected council commissioner.

15 Marinites Pass Tests As Engineers

The California Board of Registration for civil and professional engineers reports that 15 Marinites have passed state engineering examinations.

They are: structural engineers Claudio B. Altura of Fairfax, and Otto Avvakumovits of San Rafael.

Civil engineer: Marius Bejan and John P. Richards, both of Tiburon; Herbert D. Bruner and John J. Cunningham, both of Novato; Clifford R. Den-Otter and Lawrence E. Santucci Jr., both of San Rafael.

Chemical engineer: Robert L. Rettig of Novato.

Land surveyor: Augustine T. Delgado of San Rafael, and Stanley J. Soldavani of Fairfax.

Electrical engineer: John C. Boland of Tiburon, Juan L. Gonzalez-Rivas and Ellis Da Jaquette, both of San Rafael, and Frank E. Shannon of Novato.

Burning Cigarette Causes $500 Damage

A sofa fire believed caused by a burning cigarette Monday night resulted in estimated $500 smoke damage to the home of Herman Koolhoven, 11 Hawthorne Lane, Corte Madera. Firemen said the blaze was discovered by Koolhoven about midnight. A sectional piece of the sofa was burned, they said, and the smoke spread to the basement and upstairs. No one was injured.

Despite industrialization about 40 per cent of West Virginia's land area is devoted to farming.

Does Marin Need Many Ambulances?

Marin County may be better off with one ambulance service under exclusive franchise instead of three private firms competing with each other, County Administrator Alan Bruce suggested yesterday at a meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

The supervisors decided to ask various hospitals and the medical profession for their views and discuss the matter on Feb. 6.

The discussion of ambulances was sparked by a report from Bruce on Doctor's Ambulance Co. and Novato Ambulance Co.

Tracing the history of ambulance service in Marin, Bruce said that Marin may not have enough business to support more than one strong responsible ambulance company on a continuing basis.

He suggested that the county call for bids for a single, exclusive county-wide contract for all public ambulance services.

New Twist—Music

ROLLA, Mo. (UPI)—Several of Tokyo's public bath houses are advertising "music to scrub by."

A firm dealing in canned music pipes in the melodies—loud enough to be heard over the splash of hot water and soothing enough to take the roughness out of the commercials that come with the service.

Face-In-Pie Youth To Pleas On Charges

Terrence Burton, 21, of San Francisco, who fell asleep in a San Rafael restaurant Saturday with his face in a plate of blueberry pie, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Monday on charges of possessing marijuana and methedrine. He is to appear for plea to the charges next Monday.

Police said they found marijuana and methedrine in his pockets.

Coast Guard Radio Plans Questioned

Marin Supervisor Thomas T. Storer said yesterday the Coast Guard apparently plans to build a communications center at Point Reyes Station within the national seashore.

Storer, speaking at a meeting of the supervisors, questioned the necessity of the facility, since the Radio Corporation of America has a large ship-to-shore and overseas transmitter nearby.

He suggested that federal funds for construction of the Coast Guard facility be used to buy more property for the seashore. At present, the federal park is only about 35 per cent of its proposed size, and Congress has failed to appropriate additional funds for property purchase.

Storer said he had received telephone calls from concerned residents of the area about the Coast Guard plans.

The supervisor asked County Administrator Alan Bruce to obtain details of the plans from Marin's representatives in Congress.

Teacher Group Names Officers

Mrs. Lois Lobanov of San Anselmo has been elected president of the Marin County Substitute Teachers' Association.

Mrs. Florence Scott of San Rafael was elected treasurer; Mrs. Patricia Newton of Kentfield, recording secretary; Mrs. Eugenia Sammis of Tiburon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edith Korosy, Corte Madera, membership chairman.

Next meeting of the association is set for March 12 at 4 p.m. in the county schools office.

The Christian's Best Friend

A religion that brings man into his natural state of spiritual freedom and harmony, enabling him to do the most good with his life, could well be called the Christian's best friend. Christian Science is such a religion. Its teachings, based upon the infinite goodness of God, equip men and women to practice spiritual healing — the most joyful of all Christian privileges.

You are invited to hear how others have solved difficult human problems through spiritual healing. Come to this public lecture by GEITH A. PLIMMER, C.S., of London, England, an experienced practitioner of Christian Science healing.

Admission is free, everyone is welcome.

Clerical Workers Win Salary Hikes

Most clerical employees of the county, particularly those in the lowest pay scales, won salary raises under a new salary program adopted by 4-1 vote of the Marin County Board of Supervisors late yesterday.

The raises, retroactive to last July, means added cost of $51,156 for the 1967-68 fiscal year.

Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen voted against the new pay plan, arguing: "The top people are being penalized in favor of the lower echelons. The lower are receiving two jumps in steps, squeezing everyone down to uniform mediocrity."

The new pay plan devised by Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott and Personnel Analyst Maren Rinne, eliminates the two bottom steps, leaving only the three top steps in each pay range. The effect of the change is to raise the starting salary for each range, thus putting Marin in a more competitive position with the rest of the Bay Area and private industry in recruiting clerical workers.

Kettenhofen suggested that the bottom first step be eliminated an another special category be established on top to reward outstanding clerical employees.

The new job descriptions and salary program was worked out after almost a year and a half of study, including specific proposals by an outside consulting firm.

Several employees will get a downgrading in salary because of changes in job descriptions and pay ranges. Supervisors referred these to the Marin County Personnel Commission for study and a recommendation where "gross inequities" result from the new pay scale.

The supervisors also asked the personnel commission to see what positions, if any, would qualify for premium pay, as suggested by Kettenhofen.

The starting pay for clerks will go from $329 to $362; senior clerk $429 to $474; intermediate typist $380 to $419; senior typist $429 to $474; stenographer $399 to $440; secretary stenographer $440 to $486; secretary $498 to $549; legal secretary $498 to $549; senior legal secretary $523 to $576.

Supervisors Attempt To Close ABAG Split

Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday toned down all critical language and approved a courteous reply to the Association of Bay Area Governments for its preliminary regional plan for the Bay Area.

Marin County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker and Albert Solnit has used strong language, noting "deficiencies" and criticizing the ABAG plan as "out of touch with reality."

The supervisors yesterday decided 4-0 to scrap the suggested statement by the Marin County Planning Commission and adopted almost word for word a statement prepared for the Novato Planning Commission by Planning Director Mark David.

The resolution "commends" the efforts of ABAG and makes these "suggestions" for improvement:

1. Reshape the program to better focus on more critical regional issues.

2. Take whatever time is needed to draft the final plan instead of setting a completion time of 12 months.

3. Seek more adequate financing, and confine the planning function to whatever ABAG can do well within its limitations.

4. Continue work on the regional information system, using material from specialized regional studies and from the County Supervisiors' Association research.

5. Retain flexibility to change the Preliminary Plan substantially as new information emerges.

Supervisor John F. McInnis abstained from voting because he is chairman of ABAG's regional planning committee.

Novato Fire Station Site Sale Gets Nod

Novato Fire District may sell part of its 1.1 acre site at Ignacio for use as a service station, the Marin County Board of Supervisors decided yesterday by 4-1 vote.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr dissented, because the Marin County Planning Commission had rejected it unanimously. "It will be the fifth or sixth service station in the area," said Behr.

But the other supervisors said they could see no practical fire district use for the site.

The area is at the corner of Entrada Drive and Ignacio Boulevard. The fire district bought the site from the state in 1961 and wants to sell the surplus 20,000 square feet so that taxes can be lowered in the Novato Fire District.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss moved for rezoning the site from agricultural to highway commercial zoning. He said the land would go back on the tax roll, and taxpayers in the district may get a tax reduction of perhaps 10 cents.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also:

ELDERLY HOUSING — Approved a 40-unit housing project for the elderly at Golden Hinde Avenue and Los Ranchitos Road with parking arrangements to be studied further. Gilan Farr, building designer, said the area is 73,500 square feet. Plans show 20 parking spaces, but neighbors objected that this was insufficient.

APPRAISERS — Appointed appraisers Edward P. Morphy and Charles P. Semple to make appraisals for the rights-of-way for the second phase of the Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Project.

MENTAL HEALTH CENTER — Contracted with Lorette Larson of Mill Valley to prepare the interior design plan for the new Mental Health Center at Marin General Hospital, subject to approval by the hospital board.

SOUTH SAN PEDRO ROAD — Continued until 4 p.m. next Tuesday, San Rafael's request for a traffic signal at Lochinvar Road when South San Pedro Road is widened.

BOLINAS EROSION — Authorized the county counsel to draft a resolution, urging legislators to urge earliest action by the Corps of Engineers to study erosion at Bolinas Beach.

ST. HILARY'S — Concurred with the Landmarks Society in Belvedere-Tiburon that St. Hilary's Church be designated by the state as a "Point of Historical Interest."

UNPAID STATE CLAIMS — Auditor Controller Michael Mitchell reported the state owes the county $268,583 in reimbursements.

PARK PURCHASE — Heard real estate man A. R. (Bob) Roumiguiere complain that Brazil-Souza ranch properties for expansion of Mount Tamalpais State Park were inferior to properties he offered for sale in San Geronimo Valley.

Supervisors Approve Draft On Shoreline Highway Plan

A resolution, designating Shoreline Highway as a two-lane scenic road and setting up criteria for future improvement and alignment was formally approved by the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

The resolution was a written draft of views expressed at last week's meeting of the supervisors.

Four supervisors endorsed the resolution as identical with views expressed last week, but Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen pounced on one point which he said had not been agreed upon.

The resolution calls for dropping "from further consideration" a route recommended by the Marin County Planning Commission, which would go from Golden Gate Bridge over the hill to Rodeo Lagoon.

Kettenhofen insisted that the Shoreline alignment proposed by the county planning commission should be included among routes to be studied by the State Division of Highways. Because of this one point, Kettenhofen voted "no." He said he is strongly in favor of the rest of the resolution.

Among other "criteria" listed by the supervisors are that any alignment of Shoreline should be not more than two lanes for slow traffic, and if more lanes are needed, another two lanes should be built separate from the first two lanes. The resolution calls for preservation of natural features wherever possible, and that under no circumstances will four lanes be built along Bolinas Lagoon.

Supervisors Veto Freitas For New Planning Council

Marin supervisors declined yesterday to seat County Planning Commissioner Walter R. Freitas of San Rafael on the City-County Planning Council.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said Freitas, named to the planning commission last June, lacked experience for the position.

Commissioner Hugh Dougherty of Stinson Beach was named to replace Freitas. The other commission representative on the council will be Eugene R. Trombley of Novato.

The vote for Dougherty and Trombley was 4-1. Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen, dissenting, said he would "not be a part of spotlighting one person (Freitas.)"

"It's food to rotate and bring in new blood," Kettenhofen declared. "I wonder whether we're doing a disservice relying on the oldtimers, so to speak?"

The chairman noted that the commission had nominated Trombley and Freitas after the supervisors had asked for the planner's choices and "now we're not accepting it."

Behr also asked a replacement for Trombley so that he could devote full time to his duties as chairman of the planning commission, but this was opposed by Supervisor William A. Gnoss, also of Novato.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer said his district should be represented on the council because it contains 90 per cent of the county's undeveloped land. For this reason, he said, Dougherty was his choice.

The job of planning council will be to help the orderly development of Marin. Besides Trombley and Dougherty, the council will comprise two supervisors and two representatives from participating cities.

Ross and San Rafael have voted against membership on the council, and Tiburon has not made a decision.

Counties Face More Burden For Welfare

Counties in California cannot expect any relief in the burden of welfare costs. In fact, the burden may rise in the 1968-69 fiscal year.

This blunt picture was painted yesterday by John C. Montgomery, director of the state Department of Social Welfare, who met Marin County supervisors in a workshop session at Civic Center.

PUNITIVE FEATURES

Amendments to the Social Security Act, approved by Congress a few weeks ago, will bring new funds into the state, said Montgomery. But in the same law are some "fiscal restrictions and punitive measures" that more than offset the increase in federal funds, Montgomery explained.

"Congress, in a period of frustration, put limitations on the aid to families with dependent children, effective July 1, 1968."

The welfare chief said the basic policy decision that must be made is whether the program will be reshaped to live within the limitations or whether county dollars will be increased to make up the loss in federal participation.

CITES PROBLEMS

The Aid to Families with Dependent Children Program does not meet minimum standards, Montgomery acknowledged. "I regret to suggest that it's going to become a more severe problem before it is resolved."

The cost of licensing such facilities as boarding houses and foster homes in the county is reimbursed by the state at the rate of $65 per license. "We'd have to stipulate that the $65 is an unrealistic figure," said Montgomery. "But we cannot promise any relief at this time."

One hopeful aspect of the act is the work incentive program. He said of 1,200,000 who are on public assistance in California, about 83,000 are employable or potentially employable, he reported. The balance are children, aged and disabled. Montgomery said the state is working on a program to get some of the 83,000 employable back on jobs through the work incentive program, beginning in July.

OFFICE STUDY

His office is also making a special study to standardize and simplify welfare programs. "Basically, we are trying to consolidate the three adult categories—disabled, blind and aged." At present legislation is different for all three categories because "unfortunately, the Legislature has reacted to pressures from various groups."

Tool Theft

Charles R. Snyder of Gate 5 Road, near Sausalito, complained to Marin sheriff's deputies Sunday that someone stole tools worth $100 from his car, parked on the road the night before.

Reed Woodlands School Site Changes Approved

Trustees of Reed School District last night favored relocating the main building of Reedlands Woods School, if it can be done within the $1,252,000 bond issue limits for the school.

Supt. H. Joe Edgington said he and architect Ron Young were directed to work out costs for moving the building farther north on the site to a sloping area where the soil is deep.

A large amount of rock had been discovered in the previous site, as close as two feet below the surface.

Relocating the building would allow reserving the flat area for a playground, Edgington said. He estimated that rough grading would cost around $100,000 for the alternative location, which, he said, would be within the budget.

The board also discussed whether the middle school will include a physical education shelter, which would cost $36,000 without a shower and locker rooms, or $120,000 with the added rooms, or a fully enclosed gymnasium for $156,000.

Edgington said he will present more information on this subject at a special board meeting Feb. 2, at 7 a.m. at Del Mar School.

Final drawings for an addition to Granada Schoool were approved for submission to the California State Division of Architecture.

Trustees decided to postpone their meeting set for next Tuesday, as it conflicts with a parent-teacher club meeting, and hold it on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Reed School library.

Gangsters' Girl, Pal Murdered

MIAMI (UPI)—Homicide detectives today searched for a getaway boat believed used by the killers of a buxom gangland playmate and her boyfriend, whose bodies were found last night in the bedroom of her luxurious island home.

Police said Mrs. Delores Castillo, a 35-year-old blonde and known escort of several gangsters, and Reynold Brian Perez, 26, an ex-convict, were found sprawled face down, fully clothed, on a double bed.

Their hands were handcuffed behind their backs, their feet were tied and their eyes and mouths taped shut. Officers said each was shot three times in the right temple with a 32-caliber pistol.

Officers said they could find no motive for the double slaying and had no leads to the killers.

Teacher Unit Holding Fast About Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—School Superintendent Robert E. Jenkins met for the third day today with San Francisco resentatives in an attempt to avert a threatened strike.

Although a "certain amount of progress" was reported in yesterday's five-hour bargaining session, the federation held fast to its plans to conduct a strike vote tomorrow.

At stake is an educational masterplan, labeled "Achievement '68," which the federation's 1,400 teacher members have submitted to Jenkins for negotiations. The plan contains 92 proposals to improve the city school system.

"A certain amount of progress was made Tuesday," a federation spokesman said. "When people get together and talk, there always is a hopeful sign the issue can be resolved."

At the meeting, James Ballard, president of the federation, charged that Jenkins initially had violated school board policy by refusing to meet with the union. Jenkins denied the allegation, saying he correctly followed state law and board policy.

Ballard earlier had expressed confidence San Francisco's 27 teacher unions composed of 4,000 members would honor a strike by the federation. The strike could begin Friday if an affirmative vote is cast Thursday.

Victor B. Graff, president of the 2,600-member San Francisco Classroom Teachers Association said a union strike is "unwarranted" because all avenues of negotiation have not been exhausted.

Graff accused the federation of putting self-interest above the educational needs of the San Francisco Unified School District.

Wilson Rules Out Military Solution

MOSCOW (UPI) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today there would never be a military solution in Vietnam and that "we must get the problem on the political rails."

Wilson issued the statement as he departed for London after a three-day visit in which he discussed "every major issue in world affairs" with Soviet leaders, including a long talk with Premier Alexei Kosygin.

Romney Enlists Aid In Primary Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. George Romney is enlisting Michigan congressional allies to join his New Hampshire presidential primary campaign.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said he plans to go to New Hampshire in Romney's behalf, and some of Michigan's new Republican House members also may go.

Romney returns to New Hampshire tonight for his second campaigning stint in preparation for the March 12 primary. He will be there until Sunday.

Griffin was elected to the Senate and five new Republicans went to the House on the Michigan ticket which Romney led with a landslide two years ago. Griffin said part of his New Hampshire mission would be to remind Republican voters that Romney proved in that race he can help other GOP candidates win elections.

"We really got off to a great start in New Hampshire," Romney said yesterday, "and we've reversed the trend up there." That trend, reflected in the opinion polls, favors former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has not yet announced his presidential candidacy.

Romney declared during a day of Washington strategy talks: "I expect to win. And the campaign has just started."

Elsewhere on the political scene:

In Montgomery, Ala., spokesmen for the Democratic party and former Gov. George C. Wallace's states rights faction predict the way will be cleared so political candidates in Alabama won't have to specifically promise to support Democratic party nominees in the November election.

Abandonment of the loyalty oath would allow a choice between President Johnson, the expected Democratic Candidate, and Wallace, a likely third-party presidential candidate.

Water Project Begins Delivery

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The first delivery of water from the main California aqueduct began in Kern County yesterday, as the Lost Hills water district began pumping.

Water has been delivered from the state water project south bay aqueduct since 1962 but none had been delivered from the main north-south aqueduct.

The Department of Water Resources said water also is available for delivery to Dudley Ridge water district, also in Kern County. Within the next 10 days, state water project deliveries also were expected to begin to Berrenda Mesa water district and the Devil's Den water district.

Secret Kirschke Witnesses Bared

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two men sought by the defense as witnesses in the Jack Kirschke murder trial have been located by the state attorney general's office.

The men refused to appear on Kirschke's behalf, but their names and addresses were turned over to Kirschke and the court where he was sentenced to die Jan. 10.

Kirschke, a suspended deputy district attorney, was convicted earlier this month of killing his wife, Elaine, 43, and Orville Drankhan, 41.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Albert W. Harris said the two witnesses, who once claimed to have seen a man and a woman flee the home after shots were fired, were "identified and located."

Strep Infections Top Disease List

Ninety-two cases of streptococcus infection were reported in Marin County last week, according to figures issued by Marin County Public Health Office.

Delays in reporting some cases from the previous week was blamed for the high figure by Dr. Patricia Hallinan, assistant county health officer.

"Cases of strep do rise a little this time of the year but there is no reason for alarm," she said.

Also reported were 12 outbreaks of mumps, five of gonorrhea, two of German measles and one each of syphilis and infectious hepatitis.

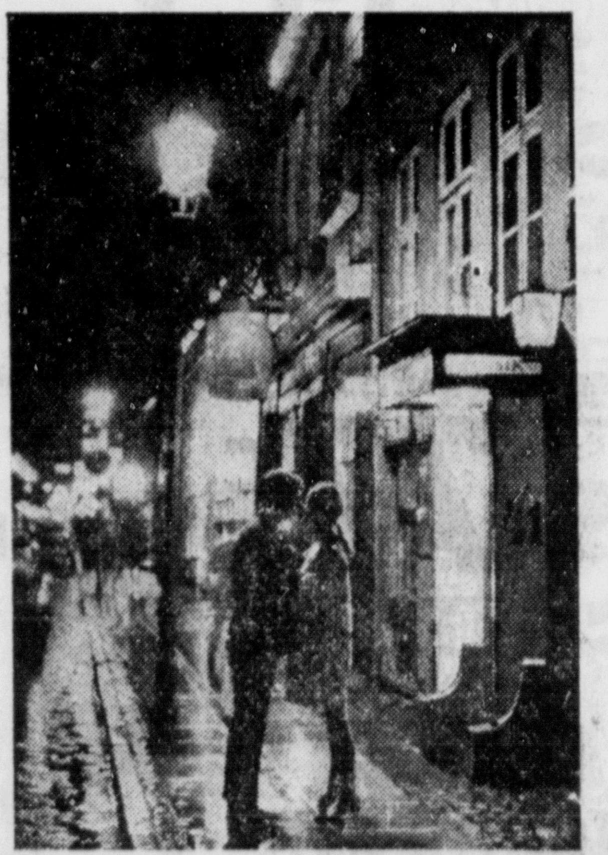
Maybe what you need is a change of people. Scandinavia.



"Skal." Welcome.

That's one Scandinavian word that just about everyone knows. But what just about everyone doesn't know is the warm, refreshing psychology that backs it up.

It shows up with a welcome that means we hope you stay far longer than you planned.

It shows up when a grandmotherly flower vendor slips an extra rose or two into the bunch you bought because you were holding hands with your wife at the time.

And when you're encouraged to linger as long as you like over a cup of coffee.

And when you may be asked home for a dinner beginning with hot soup and warm talk with accented English.

And where ancient kings were named Gorm the Old and Harald Bluetooth and where much later a writer named Hans Christian Andersen turned up just to let people know our hearts are absolutely in the right place.

And where there's an amusement park named Tivoli that's part Disneyland, Broadway, Carnegie Hall and where the merriment runs full tilt.

Why Scandinavia? Why live?

Four-Year, $1.8 Million San Rafael School Proposal

A proposed four-year plan to meet high school housing needs, including a $1.8 million bond election in September, was presented to the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

The bonds would finance additions to Terra Linda High School, improvements to San Rafael High School and purchase of a site for a third high school.

A similar proposal for $2 million was one of three San Rafael City Schools bond proposals defeated at the polls last October.

Board members had little chance to discuss the proposal because they were faced by a delegation of about 65 persons demanding more information about high school housing plans.

They were residents of the Terra Linda-Lucas Valley-Marinwood area, prompted to action by the possibility their children would be assigned to San Rafael High School.

After a one-hour-and-50-minute hearing the board suggested that representatives of the group meet with Supt. John F. Plank and members of the 1967 Citizens Committee, who studied housing needs.

Under the four-year-plan proposed by Plank, there would be another bond election in the 1970-71 school year to finance construction of a third high school. The amount was unspecified. The first phase of a third high school would be completed in the 1971-72 school year.

Thera would be no students from the Terra Linda-Lucas Valley-Marinwood or Santa Venetia areas assigned to San Rafael High School this fall under the plan, but there would be for the next three years.

Board members received a letter carrying 107 signatures asking for "facts" about high school housing needs and various ways they can be met.

Charles H. Roach of 613 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley, speaking as a representative of " a number of residents," opened the hearing with a prepared statement.

Residents originally became concerned about the transfer of students from Miller Creek and Santa Venetia Middle School to San Rafael High School this fall, he said.

Then their discussion centered on the larger issue of what the district is going to do about a third high school, Roach said.

The residents' basic concern is a lack of information about long range plans, intermediate plans and present plans, he said.

Board Member Herman L. Childress explained that the board has been "looking at" such possibilities as flexible scheduling, a longer school day and a longer school year to meet the housing needs.

Board President Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. hasn't made any decisions regarding the coming school year, but probably will "inside the next month."

Terra Linda High School is slated to near capacity during the 1968-69 school year while San Rafael High School will have space available.

Frank Stocking, Terra Linda High School principal, said the school could take students for another year, but students might not be able to take certain courses, which would be filled.

Board Member Paul L. Jones said the main reason for sending students to San Rafael High School "was for the betterment of the student. It had nothing to do with parents. It would be easire to offer a wide range of courses under less crowded conditions. There's better education if there is less crowding of schools."

There was a series of groans from the audience when Board Member John C. Pfeiffer said the parents would have to face re-districting if a third high school were built.

Capitol On Campus

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI)—The Old Capitol Building on the University of Iowa campus served as Iowa's statehouse when Iowa City was the state capital.

San Jose Parking Lot Ring Cracked

SAN JOSE (AP) — Warrants have been issued for the arrest of 25 San Jose Municipal Parking Lot attendants who a city attorney says may have pocketed more than $100,000 in parking fees.

The arrests culminated work by two police undercover agents working in the city parking lots between Dec. 20 and Jan. 19.

Police Chief Ray Blackmore said many of those involved were college students working part time.

All the accused attendants are bonded and Keith Gow, deputy city attorney, said the city expected to recover the losses which he estimated between $100,000 and $125,000.

Retarded Pupils Move Proposed

If the San Rafael Elementary School District established its own program for educable mentally retarded pupils, it would be better educationally than remaining the the Marin County Schools Office program.

This was stressed last night in a report to the San Rafael Board of Eucation by Mrs. Lee Heise, special education director, on the feasibility of undertaking the program.

There are 26 pupils from the district in the county program and they attend classes in various districts in Marin, Mrs. Heise said.

Under district operation, pupils would attend classes in their own community and could be integregated into the regular school program, she said.

Supt. John F. Plank said such a program would result in a "saving" of $12,000. The costs would be $14,700 for next year as compared to $26,700 for this year, he said.

San Rafael board members took no action, since the matter was scheduled only for hearing, not for action.

The San Rafael Board of Education also:

HIRED — Approved the hiring of Mrs. JoAnn Graff, English and Spanish teacher, high school district, $6,710 a year; Mrs. Judith Robie, teacher, primary grades, elementary district $6,205; David Swingle, English teacher, high school district, $7,015; David Huntington, custodian, Coleman School, $5,136; David Lawrence, custodian, Terra Linda High School, $5,352; and Emile Maynard, bus driver, $5,352 a year.

SHOP IMPROVEMENTS — Toured the shop addition at Davidson Junior High School, approved two change orders costing $934 and accepted the job as complete.

STUDENT NAMES — Had first reading of a proposed policy restricting the releasing of personal information about students below the 12th grade.

AUDITS — Accepted audits of the high school and elementary districts for the year which ended June 30, 1967, compiled by Sleezer and Eckhoff, certified public accountants, San Rafael. Each audit noted that fixed assets were omitted because "the district does not maintain property and equipment records reflecting cost of some other acceptable basis of valuation."

Senator Shuffles His Committee Seniority

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John J. Williams, Del., is giving up his seniority on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, where he is No. 4 Republican, to concentrate on the Senate Finance Committee, where he is No. 1 Republican.

"It is impossible for any member to serve efficiently on both of these committees," Williams said yesterday in announcing that he would ask the Senate GOP Conference to demote him from fourth to seventh on foreign relations.

RCA Wage Offer Draws 'No' Vote

A wage offer from RCA Communications Inc. has been rejected by local members of the American Communications Association, who have been picketing RCA installations here since Dec. 1.

The New York local of the Communications Association, which has 2,000 members, voted on the company offer yesterday, but no report of the New York vote has been received here.

The West Marin division of Local 9 voted 28-9 to reject the offer, $3.50 a week increase or four per cent, whichever is greater. In San Francisco, Local 9 members voted 86-2 to reject it. There also were votes in Hawaii and Guam, but the bulk of the membership is in New York.

An estimated 110 Marin residents have been unemployed since the start of the labor dispute. RCA has a transmitting station at Bolinas, and a receiving station at Point Reyes. Some of the other Marin RCA people work in San Francisco.

Miguel Rodriguez, public relations officer for the West Marin workers, said he would get the results of the New York vote sometime today. In the meantime, he said, the union members would continue their boycott of RCA products sold by dealers in this area.

Sonic Boom Cause

The sonic boom which hit Marin County about 2:30 p.m. yesterday was caused by an SR71 supersonic reconnaisance plane flying out of Beale Air Force Base, according to the officials at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Driver Crashes Into Hub Creek

A 46-year-old Petaluma man suffered minor head cuts early today when his car left Center Boulevard in San Anselmo and plunged into the three-foot-deep San Anselmo creek.

The motorist, Frank L. Chambers Jr., was taken to Hamilton Air Force Base hospital for treatment. Officers said he was driving east about 5:15 a.m. on Center Boulevard near Bridge Avenue when the car left the road. Chambers, who climbed onto the roof of the partially submerged vehicle until police assisted him to the creek bank, told officers he didn't know what happened.

Arnheiter's Support Leads To Desk Duties

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief of naval operations says Capt. Richard G. Alexander's actions on behalf of an officer stripped of command made it clear Alexander himself wasn't qualified to command a ship in the Navy.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer said of Alexander: "I did not have confidence in his judgment."

Alexander had been named to command the reactivated battleship New Jersey but was relieved and reassigned to a desk job after publicly supporting the cause of Lt. Cmdr. Marcus A. Arnheither of San Rafael.

Arnheiter was captain of a radar picket ship patrolling the waters off Vietnam when he was relieved of command following complaints from junior officers about the way he maintained discipline. The Navy said he showed "gross lack of judgment and inability to command and lead people."

Moorer said Alexander wrote to Secretary of the Navy Paul R. Ignatius defending Arnheiter "with remarks unbecoming a senior officer of the Navy."

Moorer's comments were in a letter written Dec. 30 to Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C. of the House Armed Services Committee. It was released yesterday by Ignatius.

Pleas Of Innocent To Felony Burglary

Carol Maria Williams and Natalie Antoinette Njissang, both 25, and of San Francisco, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to felony burglary charges.

The women are to appear in court Feb. 16 for a preliminary hearing on charges they stole a bicycle from the garage of Stevens Manning Jr. at 296 Beach Road, Belvedere, Jan. 14.

Fee, Tax Revenues Up In Tiburon

Revenues from fees and taxes in Tiburon have increased over the previous fiscal year according to a mid-year report by Asst. City Mgr. Russell L. Melquist to the city council.

Compared were the periods July 31 to Dec. 31 in 1966 and 1967. Sales tax receipt of $32,291 were up in 1967 $8,550 from $23,740 in 1966.

Due to recent legislation, Tiburon in 1967 received $1,993.20 in cigarette tax for the first time.

Franchise revenues rose $154 from $1,690 to $1,844 and business license fees increased $4,508 or from $7,939 to $12,448. City Manager Lawrence D. Rose said this increase was mostly due to delinquent license fees being collected.

Planning fees were up $325 from $100 to $425; engineering fees were up $392 from $131 to $524. Building fees rose $1,000 from $4,415 to $5,415. Also $27,426 of the anticipated property tax of $79,900 has been received, close to last year's figure of $27,210.18.

The total general fund of $84,684 is above last year's figure of $70,941 by $13,742.

Liquor license revenues of $1,726 were under last year's figure of $2,613 by $887, because no large restaurant or bars opened during the six months.

Pacific Studios Operator Gets Hearing Delay

A municipal court probation hearing for Ronald R. Lopez, former operator of a San Rafael photo studio, has been postponed to 9:15 a.m. Friday.

Lopez, 31, of Oakland, was to have appeared today in Sonoma County Municipal Court, Santa Rosa, for a hearing on the possibility of probation after he pleaded guilty Dec. 27, 1967, to a charge of ignoring a subpoena issued by a state deputy labor commissioner. The commissioner was to have questioned him about operation of Pacific Studios in Santa Rosa and San Rafael.

Another operator of the studio, Philip G. Williams, 40, of Sacramento is scheduled for jury trial Jan. 30 in the court on eight counts of issuing bad checks to employees and to a charge of selling portraits over the telephone with misleading information.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 24, the 24th day of 1968 with 342 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1848 gold was discovered in the Sacramento River near Coloma.

In 1908 the first Boy Scout troop was organized in England by Sir Robert Baden-Powell.

In 1946, the United Nations General Assembly voted to set up an Atomic Energy Commission.

In 1966, President Johnson submitted a record $112.8 billion budget. Also on this day in 1966 117 persons were killed when an Air India jet crashed on Mont Blanc, France.

A thought for the day, Adam Smith said, "The real price of everything, what everything really costs to the man who wants to acquire it, is the toil and trouble of acquiring it."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

An Old Bridge Saying: Good Cards Come To The Good Player

When they dig up the records of our time, hundreds of years from now, the historians may wonder why South always got most of the high cards in the ancient game of contract bridge. Perhaps, according to a regular reader, South is favored by the gods of luck because he knows how to play the cards well.

CLUB LEAD

"My partner opened the ten of clubs," writes Daniel H. George of Gloucester, Mass., "and declarer won in his hand. He drew two rounds of trumps with the ace and king, then cashed the top hearts and ruffed a heart in dummy. His next step was to take the rest of his clubs.

"I discarded low diamonds on the third and fourth round of clubs, but my forbearance didn't help me a bit. Declarer led a trump, forcing me to win and to return a diamond away from the king. South let this ride around to dummy's queen, making the slam.

LUCKY HAND

"It was quite a lucky hand for South. He needed a 3-2 trump break and also had to find precisely three hearts and the king of diamonds in the hand of the opponent who held three trumps.

"It was an unlucky hand for me. If I had ruffed declarer's third or fourth club, I would have deserved my score.

UNLUCKY HEARTS

It was unlucky to have only three hearts and to run into a declarer capable of playing the cards for all they were worth.

"The moral of the hand might be: sit South if you play the cards well, or sit North if your partner does."

Perhaps another moral might be: bid your head off if you feel lucky.

DAILY QUESTION

♣K Q 7 3.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one club.

It is always convenient to open with one club when you have four clubs and four spades, with enough strength for a bid. No response by partner can embarrass you.

Vaccination For Measles Needed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A new entrance requirement went into effect for California schools in 1968—a measles vaccination.

A new state law requires immunization against measles for any youngster entering a public or private elementary or secondary school for the first time.

The law does not apply to those whose beliefs prohibit immunization or to youngsters with a medical reason for not receiving the shot.

Youngsters previously were required to be immunized against smallpox and polio before entering school.

Moose Lodge Will Fete Move Into New Quarters

San Rafael Lodge 1803, Loyal Order of Moose, will celebrate the opening of its new lodge quarters at 2020 Fourth Street with a Gay Ninties dance at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The lodge, which formerly met at 10 Woodland Avenue, will be moving into the former office of a real estate firm, which has been remodeled for lodge purposes.

The new quarters have a meeting room, kitchen and a separate room which can serve for family and youth activities, reported Paul Crinklaw, junior past governor of the lodge. The lodge is leasing the quarters, he said.

Robert Satterfield of the Fairfield Lodge, governor of the Redwood Empire District, and officers from other lodges from throughout the district are expected to attend the opening, reported Calvin Hall, governor of the San Rafael lodge.

Firm's Signs Win Approval

Santa Rosa Savings and Loan Association Monday night was granted permission to erect three signs on walls of its new building at Grant Avenue and Highway 101 by the Novato Planning Commission.

The signs will total 88 square feet where 80 would normally be allowed.

The commissioner approved reclassifying from planned community to single family residential Marin Golf and Country Club Estates Unit 5.

It granted Donald E. Herner permission to construct a house within 12 feet of the front property line at 14 Olympia Way where 25 feet are required.

A sign application from Mobile Oil Co. for a station at Diablo Avenue and Court Road was continued. The application of Wells Fargo for two free-standing signs for its new building at Fifth Street and Grant Avenue was withdrawn.

Wrecking Yard Permitted Over City Staff Objections

Members of San Rafael Planning Commission last night sided with the man who pays taxes and granted permission for a auto wrecking yard in the downtown area despite opposition from planning staff.

The staff maintained that if Harold P. Hall were allowed an auto wrecking yard at the rear of 931 Second Street, trucks would overload "this already commuter saturated street."

But said Commissioner Tom O'Toole: "Let people who go through Second Street without any benefit to the city slow down for this man who pays his taxes."

Fred E. Jensen, a city councilman speaking on Hall's behalf, recalled he had his own business on Second Street without complaints when the thoroughfare was two-way.

He said a denial would be "a grave injustice to a family who has been in this city for years."

A use permit was granted Kaiser Foundation Hospital for expansion of existing facilities at Montecillo Road.

Additions will include major surgical facilities and outpatient treatment offices with more parking, the commission was told

Members also approved rezoning the extension land from residential and unclassified to planned community.

San Rafael Planning Commission also:

SIGN — Approved a use permit for the illumination of an Independent-Journal sign on the Fifth Avenue side of the I-J building.

ASSEMBLY — Permitted the assembly, testing and repair of small diesel generators in the existing warehouse at 2147 Francisco Boulevard for owner J. Filippo.

ROOF SIGN — Approved erection of a gasoline sign on roof of 20 Bellam Boulevard for Robert Jennings and Glenn Muttersbach.

NEXT MEETING—Adjourned to Feb. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in city hall when the commission will discuss sign provisions for residential zones.

Steering Wheel Gone

A Moon Colony Urged For U.S.

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Nobel Prizewinner Dr. Willard F. Libby says unless man establishes a colony on the moon when it becomes feasible he is "likely to remain earthbound."

"If we develop the ability to live on the moon," Libby said Monday, "we would be far along toward the development of hardware necessary for the exploration of the rest of the solar system."

Dr. Libby, winner of the 1960 Nobel Prize for chemistry, predicted that atomic - powered spaceships would be used to establish and maintain a base on the moon.

Tam Quintet Retains Unbeaten Mark

You can fool around a little in the first half of a basketball game, providing you don't fall too far behind, but come the third quarter you'd better start your comeback or it may be too little and too late.

Three Marin County Athletic League teams came through in the third period yesterday afternoon and left their rivals for dead. Front-running Tamalpais, still improving, remained unbeaten with a 63-49 victory over hopeful Novato, while Redwood took over undisputed possession of second by routing Drake 58-42, and Marin Catholic ran past Terra Linda, 81-74.

STRETCH LEAD

The league-leading Tam Indians had a 14-point lead at halftime over the resurgent Hornets, and settled the issue permanently in the first two minutes of the second half as Pat Schafer scored on a push shot, buried a tip-in, and Ron Small tanked a third straight basket to stretch the lead to 20.

Redwood had a shaky 29-25 lead over Drake at the half, but completely dominated the third quarter, outscoring the cold Pirates 15-3 to lock up the victory.

Marin Catholic stretched its halftime lead to 16 in the third period and withstood a Terra Linda rally in the last quarter to down the winless Trojans.

Tamalpais, it seems, has yet to reach its potential. The Indians were better than ever as they dominated Novato from the outset. Schafer was the outstanding player in a distinguished list, shooting 50 per cent from the floor and 5 of 6 from the foul line for 21 points, in addition to grabbing 16 rebounds and blocking at least a half dozen shots.

Floyd Jackson, who gets better as the season progresses, had 16 points, mostly on his superb jump shot. Leroy Barrow chipped in with five assists, while Ron Small had eight points and played a fine floor game. Guards Steve McNally and Bob Anderson had 16 and 11 points to top Novato's scoring.

STONE ON BENCH

Drake played Redwood tough for a half, but with rugged center Don Stone on the bench (Stone had three personal fouls in the first quarter, four with six minutes left in the first half) the Pirates were soundly beaten off

FRENCH SKIERS FINISH 1-2 IN SLALOM EVENT

MEGEVE, France (AP) — Georges Mauduit and Bernard Orcel gave France a 1-2 finish in the men's giant slalom ski race today after France's superstar, Jean-Claude Killy, failed to enter.

Billy Kidd of Stowe, Vt., one of America's hopes in the Winter Olympics at Grenoble next month, finished fifth. Rick Chaffee of Rutland, Vt., placed 13th.

Mauduit, 26, clocked 2 minutes, 2.90 seconds for the 2,200-meter course with a drop of 460 meters and 73 gates.

Negro Athletes Threaten Cal Sports Boycott

JIM GILMARTIN

Public Relations Exec Is Pup's No. 1 Winner

JIM SHORTS — Pup's Blue Ribbon winner for today is public relations exec Dick Skuse of San Rafael because two of his current accounts are the 58th annual Golden Gate Kennel Club Dog Show (Feb. 3-4) at the Cow(??) Palace and — the Doggie Diner eatery chain. But Dick's bark is worse than his bite, and please Skuse the bum puns.

Dick Nolan, the 49rs' new head coach, was only one year old when Matthew Emory Hazeltine, the team's veteran linebacker, was born. Dick's 35, Matt's 34.

Drake High School senior Mike Suyderhoud of San Anselmo, the world champion water skier, will compete in the Australian Masters Tournament March 9-10, leaving here Feb. 22 for a week's practice in Hawaii. Master Michael will water ski only in Australia and Hawaii; the rest of the trip will be made by commercial airline.

Where's J.C. In Marin City?

Quote on former Marinite Fred Arnold from the Kansas State basketball brochure: "Played some last year after transferring from Marin City Junior College, Marin, Calif. Big and strong physically. Can be played at center or forward." I spent three hours yesterday looking for the J.C. in Marin City.

Pandora's Treasures of San Rafael has a handy little gadget called Golf-Mate which helps duffers solve such problems as shanking, hooking, slicing, skying, topping, pulling, ect. By writing to the firm (P.O. Box 2611), readers of this column can get one for the asking, plus a 35 cent charge to cover the cost of mailing and handling.

Some Cards Would Cheer Maggi

Sick List: San Anselmo florist Pete Maggi, who for many years has done so much for the youth of the community through his sponsorship and coaching of various athletic teams, is in Ross General Hospital after his second major operation in recent months. I'll bet some cards and letters from some of his former athletes would speed Pete's recovery.

A baseball weighs about 5 1/8 ounces and a bowling ball is 16 pounds, but the tremendous difference doesn't seem to bother Joe DeMaestri of Novato. The former major league infielder, who now distributes Falstaff Beer in Marin (from bad hops to good hops) last week bowled a 240 game at Nave Lanes. (Two-forty also happens to be his weight and lifetime batting average (sorry 'bout that, Joe).

Marinites In Track Meet

Star-studded field for Friday night's Athens Invitational track and field meet at the Oakland Coliseum Arena will include Bill Ranney of Fairfax and James Lopes of Mill Valley in the one-mile walk, Steve Brown of San Rafael in the 1,000-yard run and Gary Hines of Novato in the high-jump. They'll be rubbing elbows with some of trackdom's brighter lights, including long jumpers Ralph Boston and Bob Beamon, shot putters Parry O'Brien, George Woods and Dave Davis, high jumpers John Rambo (7-3) and Ed Caruthers (7-2½), miler Olf Hoegberg (3:58.9) of Sweden and many others.

Dave Hennessy, junior varsity basketball and cross-country coach at Marin Catholic High, is brother of Boston Patriots defensive back Tom Hennessy.

NO QUESTIONS — Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia 76ers leaves no doubt about this basket as he stuffs a shot through the net in the East-West NBA all-star game at New York while the East's Jerry Lucas (16) of Cincinnati and the West's Len Wilkens (lower left) of St. Louis, Bob Boozer of Chicago and Zelmo Beaty (lower right) of St. Louis, watch. Greer Leads East Stars To Triumph Over West

NEW YORK (UPI) — Hal Greer said he felt a little funny being introduced before the National Basketball Association's All-Star game.

"There was litle ol' me standing out there with all those big guys with big legs. Jerry West was laughing at me," Greer said.

After the East routed the West 144-124 in the 18th annual classic at Madison Square Garden last night before the largest All-Star crowd in history, 18,422, no one was laughing at Greer, a spindly 6-foot, 2-inch backcourt man from the Philadelphia 76ers.

GREER GAME'S MVP

Hitting on seven of seven field goal attempts and 14 straight points in the third quarter, he broke open the game and walked off with the Most Valuable Player trophy.

Greer, who played five minutes in the first half, contributing one field goal, sat out the fourth period as John Havlicek and the rest of the star-studded East squad turned the game into a rout. Havlicek led the East with 26 points compared to Greer's 21, but the 76ers' star was an overwhelming choice as MVP in a poll of sportswriters.

Havlicek and Oscar Robertson, of the Cincinnati Royals, combined for 25 points as the East jumped to a 64-59 halftime advantage while Los Angeles Laker teammates Elgin Baylor and Jerry West kept Coach Bill Sharman's club within reach.

Then in the third period, East Coach Alex Hannum sat down Dave Bing, the league's No. 1 scorer from the Detroit Pistons, and started Greer with Robertson in the East's backcourt. With West hitting jumpers, the Western stars bounced back and went ahead 73-71 and 75-73. Greer made a pair of free throws to tie the game at 75, then hit his 14 points in a row, capping it with a three-point play to give the East an 87-79 advantage.

The East boosted its lead to 101-91 after three quarters and, paced by Jerry Lucas and Havlicek, poured it on in the final period. Baylor topped the West with 22 points and his Laker teammates, Archie Clark and West, had 17 each.

Wilt Chamberlain, of the 76ers, in a self-sacrificing game in which he scored only seven points while decoying defenders, raised his right hand in the dressing room and said triumphantly:

"I've made another MVP."

L.A. OPEN

Arnie To Defend Golf Title

PASADENA (AP) — The 42nd annual Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament gets under way tomorrow with many familiar faces on deck but on a new course and, in fact, in a new city.

The most familiar face is that of Arnold Palmer, a three-time winner of the event and the defending champion.

The setting is the 7,100 yard, 36-35—71 Brookside Golf Course, a revamped municipal course sprawling hard by Pasadena's famed Rose Bowl.

The sponsoring Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce accepted Pasadena's invitation to play Brookside when the Professional Golfers Association refused to continue playing the tournament at West Los Angeles' Rancho Municipal Course.

The professionals teamed with amateurs in today's pro-am preliminary to the main show—72 holes which is scheduled to wind up Sunday.

Notably absent is the U.S. Open champion, Jack Nicklaus, who has played but twice in the Los Angeles fixture since he turned pro in 1961 and made his debut in the 1962 Los Angeles tournament.

The winner will collect $20,000, and some 144 pros will take aim at the loot.

Included is Kermit Zarley, former National Intercollegiate champion from the University of Houston, who was the surprise winner Sunday of the $125,000 Kaiser International Open at Napa.

Also entered is Billy Casper, who has won the National Open twice, but never the Los Angeles event.

Several regulars on the pro tour failed to qualify. Included were Dave Ragan, Tommy Jacobs and Mike Fetchick.

Qualifying, by courtesy of the Junior Chamber, were Bud Holscher, Al Besslink and Joel Goldstrand. They tied with 74 for the two remaining spots but after playing three extra holes in darkness, it was agreed all three would play in the tournament proper.

Double Cage Triumph

The Redwood junior varsity basketball team upped its record to 12-1 by thumping the Drake jayvees yesterday, 65-49. Tom Wickert had 20 points for the winners. The Redwood frosh topped the Drake frosh 50-20.

Shoemaker Injured In Spill

ARCADIA (AP) — Willie Shoemaker, perhaps the most famous jockey in the world today, broke a bone in his right thigh in a spill at Santa Anita race track and there's no telling when he will ride again.

The mishap to the 36-year-old Texas-born "Shoe," who has ridden many of the world's best known thoroughbreds, the latest of which is Damascus, happened in the second race yesterday.

The 12-horse field was rounding into the stretch when Juan Gonzalez' mount, Kodiak Kid, tripped on the heels of another horse, Jack's Aloha ridden by Manuel Ycaza.

TRIPPED

Shoemaker's mount, Bel Bush, tripped over Kodiak Kid, as the rest of the field thundered past.

Gonzalez and Shoemaker sprawled on the track, Gonzalez with a minor leg injury, Shoemaker with a broken leg, his most serious injury in his 19-year career. He was in many previous spills, but always escaped with minor bruises.

Shoemaker was taken to the Daniel Freeman Hospital in nearby Inglewood and underwent surgery by Dr. Robert Kerlen.

Dr. Kerlen said the fall broke Shoemaker's right femur, the bone between the hip and the knee and the largest, strongest bone in the body.

DOING WELL

Dr. Kerlen said Shoemaker was doing well after the surgery. Gonzalez, a 19-year-old from Zacatecas, Mexico, was released from Arcadia Methodist Hospital after observation. Doctors said he might be able to ride by Friday.

Shoemaker is the winningest active jockey with 5,758 career triumphs. He is 274 behind the record of 6,032 set by Johnny Longden, now retired.

Shoemaker has won virtually every stake race in the book, including the Triple Crown classics of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes. In 1953 he won 485 races for a record that still stands.

Oaks End Six-Game Drought

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Oaks, playing their first test without ABA scoring leader Levern Tart, broke a six-game losing streak last night by beating the Houston Mavericks 120-110.

Tart was traded off to the New Jersey Americans for Larry Leibowitz, who got into the Oakland lineup for 16 minutes against Houston.

Helping Oakland fans forget sharpshooting Tart was center Jim Hadnot, who tallied 30 points. Willie Somerset of Houston equalled Hadnot's scoring accomplishments.

The Oaks, who play Anaheim tomorrow in the Oakland arena, led the Mavericks throughout, running up a 55-47 margin at halftime.

Demand Ouster Of Bear Coaches

BERKELEY (AP) — Negro athletes on the University of California Berkeley campus are demanding better treatment, saying they will boycott varsity sports if it isn't forthcoming.

Some two dozen of the university's 40 Negro athletes outlined eight complaints at a news conference yesterday, including a demand for replacement of three Berkeley campus coaches "for reasons to their inability or unwillingness to relate to black athletes and their general incompetence."

Acting as spokesman for the group was Bobby Smith, defensive halfback on the All-Pacific-8-Conference team who also played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games.

THREE COACHES

The men the Negroes want replaced are Rene Herrerias, the head basketball coach, defensive football line coach William Dutton and offensive backfield coach Joe Marvin.

The protesting athletes suggested no specific replacements, but one of their demands was that the school make a sincere effort to hire coaches with minority background.

Neither Herrerias nor Athletic Director Pete Newell would comment. Newell said he was trying to meet with the Negro athletes.

A spokesman for the group said the boycott threat was only that, and applied only to the Berkeley campus.

RESOLUTION

Their action followed quickly a resolution signed by 12 of the varsity basketball squad Monday night saying they would play no more basketball until what they called administrative pressures were removed from Herrerias, who they claimed had been forced to reinstate a suspended basketball star.

He was high-scoring Bob Presley, a 6-foot-10½ center who was suspended last week for missing practice and then reinstated after missing the UC game with Portland University.

Meantime, the 12 basketball players, all caucasians, held a news conference of their own last night and demanded that "all mistatements of truth which transpired in this afternoon's meeting of the black athletes be corrected."

VIOLATIONS

Spokesman Robert Tannenbaum, third-year law student, tutor for athletes, attorney general of the Associated Students and a former student assistant basketball coach, said Presley, a Negro, violated team discipline by not undergoing conditioning exercises, by making slighting remarks about the

Art Ashe Louses Up Tennis Color Scheme

Anyone can see right away what the trouble is with Arthur Ashe on a tennis court. He louses up the color scheme.

Tennis, as you know, is so resolutely white that some clubs you can't get in if you have a cavity. White sneakers, pants, shirt, skirt, sweat-band—if they played the game against the snowbank, you wouldn't be able to see it at all. You don't have to have blond hair but if you don't your backhand had better be extraordinary.

ARTHUR ASHE JR. is, of course, America's best tennis player and history's best Negro player. His remarkable story is told in the book, "Advantage Ashe," as competently and as matter-of-factly as a love set in co-authorship with Cliff Gewecke. It clearly defines Arthur Ashe as one of America's most overlooked sports legends.

Arthur is the despair of the militants ("Arthur Ashe — former Negro," they sneer), possibly because your first - round opponent in tennis is always your emotions. Arthur has long since learned to put them away in straight sets. He has seen to it they are never seeded above him.

ARTHUR COMES by part of his stoicism naturally. Daddy, who used to sweep the tennis courts Arthur later learned to play on, was a laconic man who believed that, the less you talked, the more people listened when you did.

Arthur, a bookish kid, was one who listened carefully when Daddy outlined a code of behavior. "Immediately" meant as fast as your legs could carry you.

Getting into the sacrosanct anteroom of big-time tennis from a start in a Richmond ghetto was accomplished because of the tenacity and devotion (to his race and to tennis, both of which he loved) of a Lynchburg Negro doctor named Robert Walter Johnson.

ARTHUR FOUND the white-on-white world of tennis curiously hospitable. It will be hotly disputed, but an anomaly of the structure of prejudice is that it is less prevalent among the aristocracy than among the masses. People who dine off damask and sterling seldom show up in bedsheets and with a hemp rope. They leave that to the wool hats. They feel less threatened by social equality. Manners are what they look for —or money. They are, I suppose, in a way, a minority themselves, perhaps one of the most vulnerable.

ARTHUR THUS found Wimbledon, Forest Hills, the lofty cabanas of Australia, Newport (the one in the East, not the one out here), the Riviera, the Los Angeles Tennis Club no barriers at all. Some of the social-climbing clubs of the Deep South, and Southwest, run by the nouveau riche and the other socially unsure with their so-what tournaments, gave him the most trouble.

ARTHUR PLAYED tennis the same way he went through life —pretending that nothing bothered him. He sometimes appeared so indifferent to a bad call or a bad shot that it unnerved his coaches. But it unnerved his opponents even more. The day he upset Roy Emerson at Forest Hills, he had to be dragged away from a bridge game with Dennis Ralston and two sports writers to suit up. "He appeared reluctant," one of the writers recalled. Emerson, in another corner of the room, appeared a bit awed by his nonchalance. The day before he had showed up an hour and a half late. He has been known to yawn at match-point.

A PULSE RATE of 50, a boiling point about the same as steel, plus a long dose of "Don't make waves" philosophy from Dr. Johnson and his father ("When you have arrived, you won't have to shout to get attention") have conspired to make Arthur Ashe the best bet to return the Davis Cup to America and the game of tennis to its rightful place as one of the premiere sports of our century.

WHEN HE does and it does, you will have no trouble recognizing him. No, I don't mean the color of his hair. I mean he will be the one trying not to fall asleep at the trophy presentation.

Drake 'B' Quintet Hands Redwood First Loop Loss

After rolling along like Ol'Man River for their first four Marin County Athletic League basketball games, the Redwood High School "B" team ran into a dam last night.

Drake's twice-beaten cagers played superb defense, limiting Redwood to less than 10 points in each of the first three periods, to upset the Giants 40-36 at Drake.

In other games, Terra Linda scored 28 points in the second quarter on the way to an 87-53 whomping of Marin Catholic, and Novato downed Tamalpais at Tam. The score was not available.

Bill Gaddy and Mark Silverman led Drake's shocker by scoring 11 points apiece. Kent Skov had 16 for Redwood.

Terra Linda had three double-figure scorers among a dozen who tallied, while Mike Luchessa had 20 to lead Marin.

the boards by the Giants' giants — Dave Detrick, Darryl Ravani, and Tom Seidenberg. Drake's cool shooting (16x51) combined with its inability to get second shots, was the difference. Seidenberg led Redwood in the scoring column with 17, while Ravani had 15 as well as 10 rebounds. Detrick, 6-foot, 7-inch pivot, had 15 caroms to lead the Giants' reign of terror on the boards. Art Pla has 15 markers and Fred Westcott 11 to pace Drake, while Don Alvarado was the only effective Pirate in rebounding with 10.

Marin Catholic had four men in double figures as the Wildcats ran to a convincing triumph over Terra Linda. Rick Garms had 15, Stacy Shaefer 14, Harry Mattsinger 13, and Rich Tobin 11 as Marin Catholic tied Novato for third place. Pat Purcell pumped in 23 to lead the Trojans.

Cal's Negro Athletes Threaten A Boycott

coach, by hostility toward his teammates and by not attending practice.

"Herrerias, in the six and a half years I've known him, has never been guilty of racism or discrimination," Tannenbaum said. "He demonstrated extreme tolerance for Presley's past disciplinary transgressions."

Both Herrerias and Newell denied the reinstatement of Presley came about because of pressure. Herrerias said racism was not involved.

There was general agreement that the Presley matter had brought to a head a certain amount of Negro discontent despite a statement by an athletic department spokesman that the protest by the Negro athletes and the basketball revolt were not related.

COMPLAINTS

This was borne out by the eight complaints made public by the Negro athletes Tuesday at their news conference. They had scheduled a meeting to discuss their complaints even before the Presley affair.

They were:

1. Replace Herrerias, Duton and Marvin.

2. Remove business manager Pat Farran, whom they blamed for their charge that "black athletes receive worse (scholarship and summer) jobs in terms of working conditions and pay."

3. Members of the athletic department have ridiculed their personal and physical appearance.

4."Frequently, black athletes have been forced to play when injured. Trainers . . . have written off our injuries as hypochondria or gold-bricking."

5. "Eliminate black quotas" among athletic scholarships.

6. Try to hire coaches of minority backgrounds.

7. "Black athletes have been left to fend for themselves in finding housing without appropriate support from the athletic department."

8. "The assumption is made that black athletes are lacking in intelligence, the result being that we received inferior academic advice and counselling."

The statement claimed the full support of the Negro community and concluded with a resolution to discourage Negro athletes from attending UC and to boycott future athletics if the complaints are not met.

Pro Grid Teams Get Ready For Start Of Player Draft

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Green Bay Packers, who don't need the help, and the Minnesota Vikings, who do, may gain the most in the second combined collegiate draft of the National and American Football Leagues starting next Tuesday.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced that the drafting will begin at 10 a.m. EST next Tuesday with a total of 462 players to be selected by 26 teams on 17 rounds.

Minnesota gets the first pick on the first round because of the bonus pick it received in the Fran Tarkenton deal a year ago. The Vikings will also grab the seventh player to be chosen as their regular selection.

The Packers got New Orleans' first draft choice after Jim Taylor played out his option and signed with the Saints and so will pick fifth.

The Packers will also make their regular choice at the end of the first round.

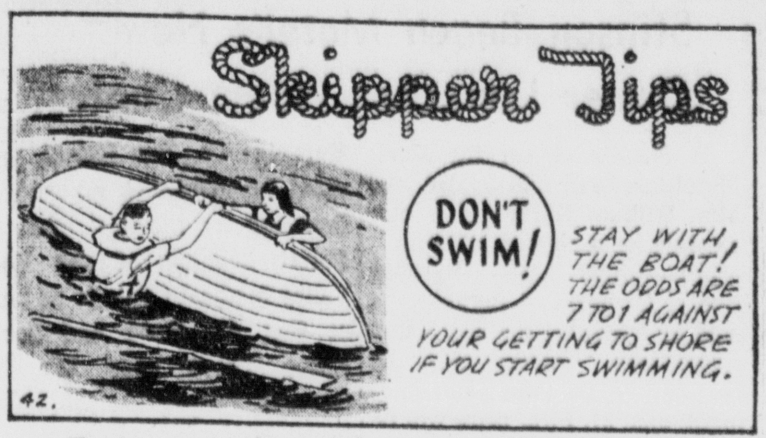
BOATING

By STAN DAVIES

Tips On Wood, Aluminum, And Fiber Glass Crafts



Skipper Tips
DON'T SWIM!
STAY WITH THE BOAT! THE ODDS ARE 7 TO 1 AGAINST YOUR GETTING TO SHORE IF YOU START SWIMMING.
42.

To be a really good expert and knowledgeable boater, it's necessary to have an inquiring mind . . . a fact demonstrated by many of the letters I keep receiving:

Q. I'm thinking of buying a plywood boat which leaks a little. The owner says it will swell up tight in a day or so. Is this true?

A. Yes, it will swell up. Probably rot, too. The joints and seams on plywood boats, generally speaking, should be filled with seam compound and made impervious to water with paint or some other covering. Only lapstrake, strip or planked boats require soaking to be tight. Every other kind should be tight before wetting.

Q. My aluminum boat is covered with stains that are really stuck! How do I get them off?

A. If household cleaners won't touch them (and I know sometimes they won't), try scouring pads, the kind with soap already in. Try them with mild fruit acids such as citric or tartaric, but DON'T use lye or cleaning products containing lye. Lye will eat holes in aluminum.

Q. The shine has gone off my fiberglass boat. It's pitted and etched around the water line. What can I do?

A. Try the rubbing compound they use on car bodies. It's a paste which carries an abrasive . . . but it's special. The abrasive cuts quickly at first, then, because it's soft, it soon breaks down into a powder which polishes. Follow this with a coat of wax.

Q. Can I paint a fiberglass boat, which I'm buying?

A. Yes. Any good marine paint will do, but it's best to get a resin base paint of the same material as the plastic material in the boat. A dealer will advise. But why paint? First try rubbing compound as suggested above.

Q. I'm getting a boat with a 90 hp. motor which the former owner turned over. Any advice?

A. Wow! This above all, get know your boat . . . and its limitations. Try it in tight turns, choppy water, close quarters, before you blast off. Remember it's like a new boat . . . it needs a little breaking in.

Q. I'm buying a plywood wood boat. In a couple of places, the wood is springy, as though the plywood had separated. Is this bad?

A. Not bad — it's terrible! Make sure the price is low enough so that you have money left to replace this "springy" plywood . . . something you'll have to do very soon. This problem is called de-lamination. It's something you look for in buying a second-hand plywood boat.

Q. I have just bought a boat with a 20 hp outboard motor. Will it pull a water skier?

A. Yes, unless the boat is a big water-logged clunker, or the skier is a baby elephant. Here's the rule of thumb: On an average light planing hull, it takes 15 hp. for the first water skier and another 10 hp. for each extra one; a 75 hp. motor on a medium weight boat will pull seven skiers. Eighteen miles an hour is about minimum speed for skiing.

Q. I can buy (very cheaply) a fiberglass boat with 13 bullet holes in it (boys used it as a target). Holes are patched. Is this serious?

A. No; particularly if patches are neat. Even if they aren't, they can be redone and sanded down. The bullet holes would not create cracks of fractures.

Q. A fast inboard runabout I can buy is 20 years old and in terrific shape. Is this a good sign?

A. Could be a bad one. Some boats are of such poor design, nobody ever gave them a workout. Be sure to give it a 100 per cent try-out before you commit yourself.

Q. I bought a bigger motor, and now my boat is hard to handle. It seems to dig in. What's the matter?

A. It could be that the new motor is at the wrong angle. If the lower unit is too far forward, the symptoms you describe occur. Try adjusting the angle of dangle.

Q. I want to buy a fiberglass boat and motor on time payments. How will it depreciate?

A. Figure the rate of depreciation at about half that of a car of comparable cost.

Q. My wife has trouble steering the car when we launch our trailer boat. Any suggestions?

A. Why don't you drive and let her wrestle the boat off the trailer? Or, for launching and take-out only, put a trailer hitch on the front bumper. Then she can see what she's doing.

Seals Still Without Harris

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Seals hope to reach a happy solution by Friday with center Billy Harris, suspended after last Saturday's National Hockey League game with the New York Rangers.

Harris, benched in the second period of the Seals' losing battle with the New Yorkers, did not return to the ice. Oakland officials said that he dressed and left the arena, an act which Coach Bert Olmstead said "constituted a walkout."

Harris, the Most Valuable Player in the American Hockey League last year with the Pittsburgh Hornets, had two conferences with Olmstead yesterday and a telephone conversation with Frank Selke Jr., club president.

Selke quoted the player as saying he wanted a few more days to think things over—a sort of cooling off period for both sides in the suspension incident.

"Hopefully the thing will be decided after the Seals return home from their game in Los Angeles Wednesday night and before they leave on a road trip Friday," said Selke.

From last year's 34-goal performance Harris has scored only six goals and 10 assists in more than 40 games this season.

He also has been benched and fined a number of times for indifferent play.

"I've been dissatisfied with my own play," Harris told a newsman after the latest benching incident.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. I am the owner of 100 U. S. Steel; 600 AT&T; 372 Gulf Oil; 300 Jersey Standard. My income from these sources amounts to a little more than $3,000 a year. As I need more income, should I sell my Big Steel and buy more of the above mentioned or something else?—A. C.

A. I believe you are figuring your yields incorrectly. To determine the current return on a stock, divide the estimated dividend by the price. In the case of Big Steel, this shows a yield at current levels of 5.5 per cent as compared with 4.4 per cent on American Telephone, 3.4 per cent for Gulf Oil and 5 per cent on Jersey Standard.

Since Steel offers the highest current return on a relatively safe dividend, it is obvious that you would gain nothing by switching to more of your other holdings.

Although Gulf Oil is probably your best growth holding, this seems the stock to switch if you require more income. On that assumption, I suggest you exchange your Gulf Oil for equal dollar amounts of Peoples Gas Light & Coke of Chicago; Duquesne Light and International Harvester. This switch should increase your income by more than $500 annually.

Q. I noticed that Xerox has gained 100 points this past year and that there is a big short interest. Isn't this a good time for me to sell Xerox short, too? I will appreciate a straightforward opinion. — H. G.

A. Xerox looks a little high priced at current levels, but I most certainly would not sell it short. The shares are volatile and can move up or down quickly, dependent on the current attitude toward the swingers, particularly that of the mutual funds.

Selling short is difficult psychologically and I believe it should be done only by patient and well-versed professionals.

New Geysers Plant Approved

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pacific Gas and Electric Co. has been granted authority to build a new unit at its geothermal steam-electric generating plant near Geyserville.

The State Public Utilities Commission yesterday gave permission to construct the $6.4 million unit, the fifth in a series.

The new unit will add 55 megawatts capacity to the system and will be in operation by June 1, 1971.

It will be provided with not less than 950,000 pounds of steam an hour at a pressure of 100 pounds per square inch from natural steam trapped deep in the earth.

Morris Earnings Up

SAN FRANCISCO (BW)—Preliminary figures from the Morris Plan (Holding) Co., San Francisco, indicate that consolidated net income after taxes for 1967 will be $1,156,598, or $1.65 per share, compared with $1,051,197, or $1.61 per share, for 1966.

Third Day Setback In Market Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — Losses outnumbered gains by about 200 issues at the close of the stock market today. Trading was active.

In the third of an indefinite series of shortened sessions, the market cut early losses, at times wiping out a decline in the Dow Jones industrial average, but failing to mount a widespread rally.

Concern over the North Korean capture of a U.S. naval vessel added a further note of uncertainty to the continued bafflement over the fiscal situation.

A variety of issues showed strength as they rebounded from what analysts called an oversold condition, but there was little to inspire an across-the-board buying drive.

Litton Industries, still under selling pressure, headed the list on volume, losing 3 or more. Just behind it in turnover was Benguet, which snapped back a point of recent losses.

U.S. Smelting ran up about 4 points in active trading. Amphenol was briskly traded and up 1.

Losses of a point or so were taken by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line, Eastern Air Lines, and Gulf & Western. Automatic Sprinkler dropped 2.

IBM dropped about 7 in profit taking on its 16-point surge of Tuesday on stock split news.

Xerox and International Nickel lost about 2 each.

The American Stock Exchange was irregularly lower.

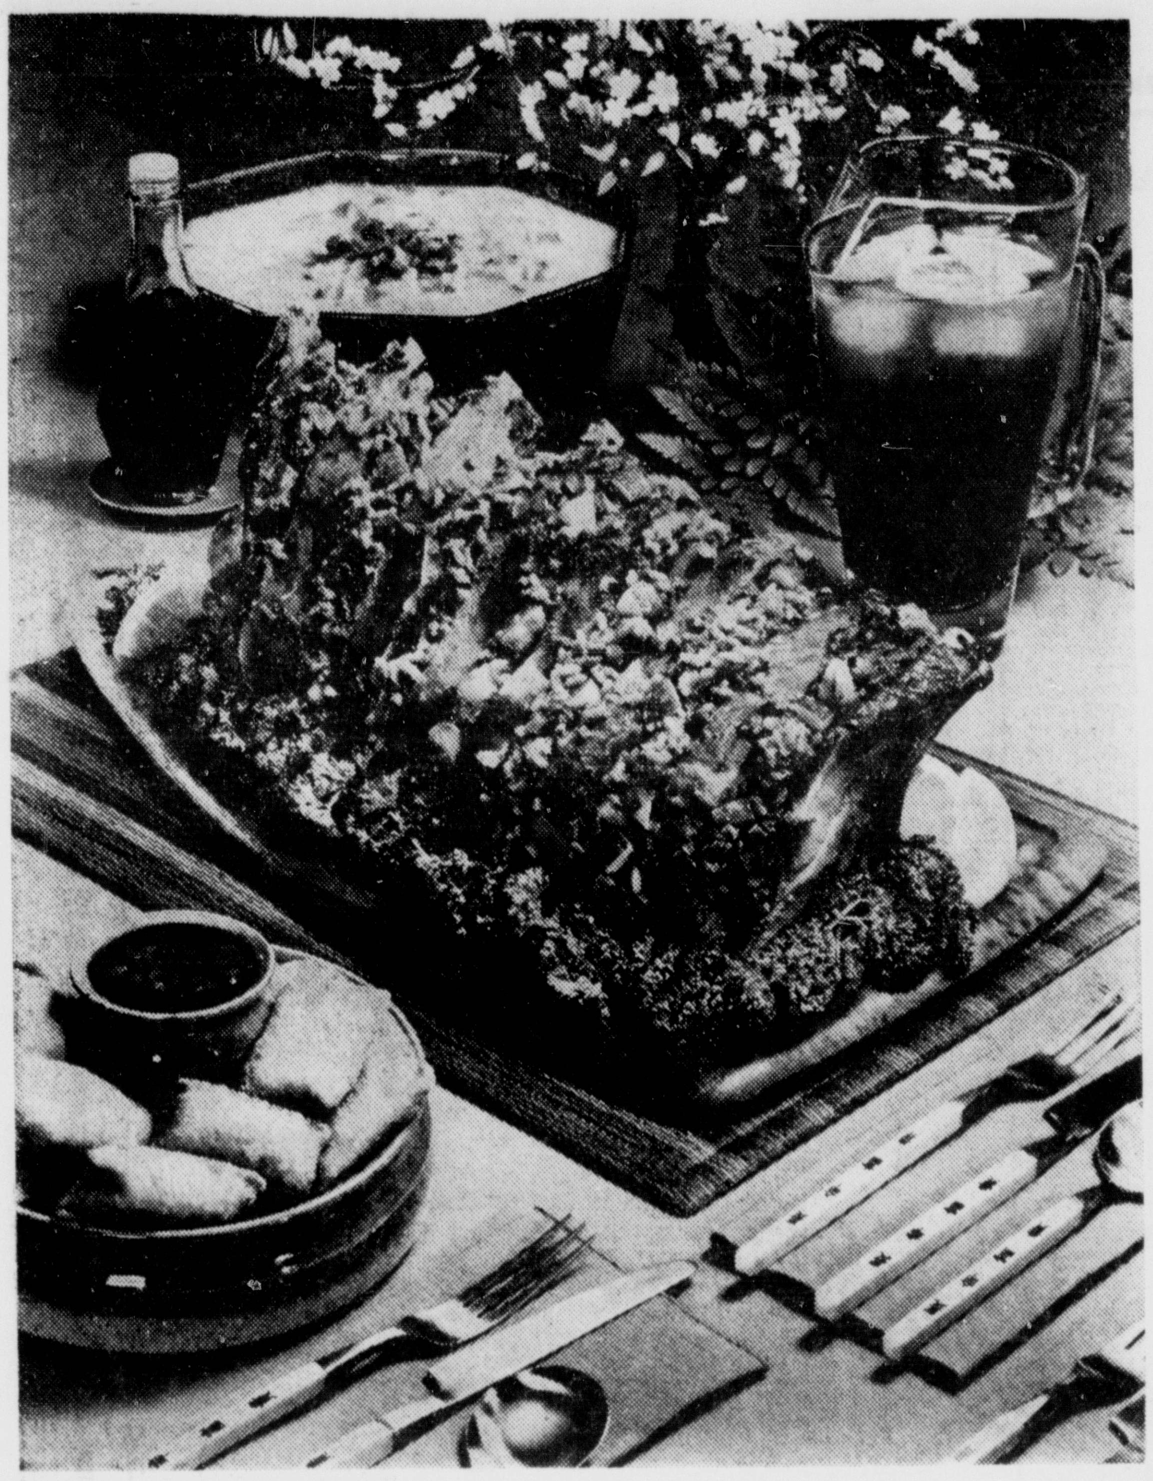
'GUNG HAY FAT CHOY'

Create A Real Chinatown Feast



EASY TO PREPARE Oriental dinner features Egg Rolls with Sweet and Sour Dip, Ribbons of Rice Pork Roast and Lucky Chinese Punch. Flavor of Chow Mein Egg Drop Soup can be enhanced with a dash of zesty soya sauce, the favorite Oriental condiment.

CELEBRATE the Chinese Year of the Monkey on January 30th with this elegant Oriental buffet that is easy to prepare and a pleasure to serve. Start with the appetizer courses of Chicken Egg Drop Soup and Chinese Egg Rolls with Mustard Sauce and Sweet and Sour Sauce. Serve the elegant entree of Cantonese Chicken on a bed of Chinese noodles accompanied by a colorful Mandarin Salad and Vegetable Cantonese. Wind up this typical American-style Chinese dinner with lots of piping hot tea and almond cookies.

The Chinese New Year . . . this year it's 4666, the Year of the Monkey . . . arrives on January 30. Oriental communities from New York to San Francisco will welcome the occasion with a month of feasting and fun, and blasts of firecrackers.

THE FESTIVITIES start weeks before Jan. 30, when Chinese businessmen close their accounts and thank the gods for a prosperous year. According to custom, all debts are paid before the old year ends so that the New Year can be welcomed into a world completely given over to gaiety and enjoyment.

One week before the old year closes, legend says, the God of the Kitchen departs for heaven to report on the behavior of each family during the past year. His departure is a time of great feasting, and marks the official beginning of the New Year festivities.

A week later, on New Year's Eve, the entire family gathers to welcome the return of the Kitchen God with colorful displays of food and the cheerful sounds of firecrackers. Traditionally, a rich feast is prepared to welcome the returning deity.

In the weeks of celebration that follow, each person is expected to visit friends and relatives, and every caller is presented with a tempting selection of tasty delicacies. Orange blossoms symbolize fruitfulness and abundance for the New Year. Consequently, oranges are a popular offering at this time.

ON THE 15th day of the New Year, the festivities end with the Lantern Festival, a feast of light during which lanterns of all sizes, shapes and colors are strung from every possible vantage point. Dragon dancing through the streets marks the conclusion of the gay and colorful New Year's holiday . . . the most important occasion in the Oriental calendar of events.

The Chinese tradition of cooking is an ancient one . . . for our calendar reads 1968, while the corresponding Oriental year is 4666. By combining the exotic flavor of traditional Oriental cuisine with the American-style speed and efficiency found in today's canned and frozen Oriental convenience foods, you can prepare an interesting and eye-appealing feast with a minimum of work in the kitchen.

START YOUR PARTY with crisp, hot, bite-size egg rolls served with a pungent, spicy sweet and sour dip. The use of frozen egg rolls can cut preparation time to minutes, and the intriguing combination of tastes in the sauce make a fine beginning for the meal. Chow Mein Egg Drop Soup, a delicately flavored adaptation of the most traditional of Oriental soups, can be served with the egg rolls or as a separate course.

Ribbons of Rice Pork Roast is a handsome main course which blends the best of two worlds of cooking . . . East and West. The savory canned fried rice filling, laced with bits of scallions and apple, keep this unique "no carving necessary roast" moist, and adds unusual flavor to the meat. Accompanied by a crisp Cantonese Salad, your easy-to-prepare entree is sure to become a year-round favorite.

The color red symbolizes happiness and good luck in ancient Oriental lore. As your party's beverage, offer colorful Lucky Chinese Punch as a cold, refreshing alternative to hot tea.

Oriental desserts always enhance, but never overpower the meal. Conclude your meal with fresh fruit, a fruit cup or ice cream . . . all popular endings to an American-Oriental meal. You'll wind up with a memorable dinner party worthy of the Oriental tradition of fine eating.

EGG ROLLS WITH SWEET & SOUR DIP

1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 jar (8 oz.) Sweet and Sour Sauce
1 tablespoon horseradish
1 tablespoon chili sauce
1 package (6 oz.) frozen Party-Pack Egg Rolls

Mix onion, sweet and sour sauce, horseradish and chili sauce well; chill. Serve as dip for crisp, bite-size hot egg rolls, prepared according to package directions.

CHOW MEIN EGG DROP SOUP

1 divider-pak can (43 oz.) Mushroom or Chicken Chow Mein
2 cans (13¾ oz. each) chicken broth
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 eggs, well beaten
Chopped scallion for garnish

Do not drain divider-pak vegetables. Combine chow mein sauce, vegetables and their juice, chicken broth and lemon juice; heat only until soup begins to bubble. Off heat, pour egg in a thin stream into hot soup, stirring constantly; egg will cook into thin shreds. Serve immediately, garnished with chopped scallion.

Makes 8 servings. (To serve 4, halve recipe and use 24 oz. size divider-pak can.)

RIBBONS OF RICE PORK ROAST

1 pork roast, about 3½ lbs. or 8 thick center cut pork chops salt, pepper and garlic
1 can (13½ oz.) fried rice
¼ cup sweet and sour sauce
3 tablespoons chopped scallions
1 egg, well beaten
1 apple, finely diced

For roast, have butcher remove backbone from roast and crack the bones so the roast can be cut into slices. Cut the roast into 8 chops, each chop having a bone. Sprinkle meat with salt, pepper and garlic powder. Combine remaining ingredients and blend well. Arrange chops on a piece of foil, standing on flat bony edge with a space of about 1 inch between each chop; fill each space with rice and remaining ingredients.

Tie a string loosely around chops to hold roast together; put on a rack and cover with foil. Roast in a pre-heated moderate oven (350°) for 1½ to 2 hours. 30 minutes before meat is ready, remove foil covering to allow roast to brown. To serve, separate meat into slices and serve each with rice filling.

Makes 8 servings.

CANTONESE SALAD

2 tomatoes, cut into small wedges
1 cup each thinly sliced celery and radishes
1 can (16 oz.) bean sprouts, drained
1 green pepper, seeded and cut in small strips
2 tablespoons soya cauce
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
1 tablespoon grated onion
Salt and pepper to taste

Toss vegetables together and chill well. Just before serving, stir salad oil, soya sauce, vinegar and grated onion together; mix well. Pour dressing over salad; mix lightly, salt and pepper to taste, and serve.

Makes 6 to 8 servings.

LUCKY CHINESE PUNCH

4 cups Hawaiian Punch, "Rosy Red" flavor, chilled
⅓ cup lemon or lime juice
⅓ cup grenadine
1 quart ginger ale, chilled
Ice cubes, orange and lemon slices

Pour punch into pitcher or serving bowl; stir in lemon juice and grenadine. Gradually stir in ginger ale. Add ice cubes, orange and lemon slices.

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

MANDARIN SALAD

TEA

CHINESE EGG ROLLS

2 egss
2½ cups flour
¼ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup cold water

Beat eggs slightly. Beat in sifted dry ingredients and enough water to make a smooth dough. Place on lightly floured surface; knead 10 times. Cover with a damp towel; let rest for 30 minutes. Sprinkle cutting board with cornstarch. Divide dough into fourths; roll out very thin. Cut into 4-inch squares.

FILLING:

½ cup minced celery
1 cup finely shredded Chinese cabbage or cabbage
3 tablespoons cooking oil
¾ cup cooked shrimp, chopped
½ cup diced cooked pork, ham or beef

Cook celery and cabbage in one-half cup water for 5 minutes; drain well. Heat oil in skillet; add shrimp, meat, water chestnuts, and bamboo shoots. Cook 5 minutes. Add celery, soy sauce, and green onions. Cool.

Moisten the edges of dough with beaten egg or mixture of one tablespoon flour and two tablespoons water. Place a heaping tablespoon of filling along front edge. Roll over to cover filling, then fold in sides. Continue to roll to other end, moistening edge and press lightly to seal. Chill. Fry in 2-inch hot oil (375°) until brown. Serve hot with mustard sauce and a sweet and sour sauce.

Combine French dressing and soy sauce. Marinate meat in mixture for 30 minutes. Chill. Add remaining ingredients; mix lightly. Serve on crisp salad greens.

Shrimp Cocktail Starts The Dinner

The shrimp cocktail has become the classic way to start dinner when you are entertaining. Yet too often the sauce served with the succulent shrimp is so spicy that the delicate flavor of the shellfish is lost. That's why it is a joy to discover an entirely different recipe for a shrimp cocktail sauce in the fascinating new book by Dorothy Rodgers, "The House in My Head" (published by Atheneum, New York City, $10.00). This famous hostess also gives her method for cooking shrimp for eight cocktails so that the shellfish are tender but never overcooked.

SHRIMP COCKTAIL, MAYONNAISE MAISON

In a large kettle, combine 1½ quarts water, 2 cups dry white wine, 2 tablespoons caraway seeds, 2 teaspoons Lowry's seasoned salt, 1 tablespoon dried tarragon, 4 white onions, cut up, 10 sprigs parsley, 10 stalks celery, cut up (tops included), and 2 teaspoons whole black peppercorns. Bring to a boil, lower heat and simmer for 40 minutes.

Meanwhile, shell, devein and wash 2 pounds medium or large shrimp under cold water. Remove bouillon from heat and strain. Add shrimp to strained bouillon; bring to a boil, turn heat off and cover kettle. Leave shrimp in to cool. Chill and serve with the following sauce.

MAYONNAISE MAISON

Blend together ¼ cup brandy, 1 cup mayonnaise and ¼ cup fresh dill, chopped fine, or 1 tablespoon dried dill weed.

The Bride Cooks Supper

Treat yourself to fresh peas!
Steamed Rice Special Peas
Fruit Cobbler Beverage

SPECIAL PEAS

1½ pounds fresh green peas, shelled
½ cup boiling water
¾ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar, if desired
2 tablespoons butter
8 small canned watter chestnuts, sliced (from a 4- or 5-ounce can)

In a 1- or 1½-quart saucepan bring the peas, water, salt and sugar (if used) to a boil; cover and boil gently until peas are tender — usually 5 to 8 minutes. Drain. Add the butter and chestnuts and reheat. Makes 3 servings.

Ornamental Frosting

Glycerine and vegetable shortening are sometimes added to an ornamental frosting that is to be forced through a pastry tube for decorating a cake. These additions help prevent the frosting's drying and crumbling during storage.

Serve A Curry Pot Roast With Rice For Variety

Curry, that interesting blend of so many different spices, can give a novel accent to your next pot-roast. Serve it with rice, to keep it in harmony with the seasoning; add relishes of chutney, preserved kumquats and saltetd peanuts to the menu and you might even have the neighbors in!

Beef pot-roast often cooks with vegetables. This one is no exception since celery, onions and green beans keep the meat company during its slow cooking time.

Select a beef blade or arm cut from plentiful supplies. Both come from the shoulder or chuck sectio, the blade type with a long, slender bone in the shape of the figure, seven, and the arm cut with a roundl o-shaped bone.

CURRIED POT-ROAST

3 to 4 pound arm or blade pot-roast
2 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon curry powder
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
½ cup water
2 stalks celery, cut in 1-inch pieces
12 small onions
1 package (9 ounces) frozen cut green beans
¼ cup flour.

Mix 2 tablespoons flour, salt, pepper and curry powder. Dredge pot-roast with seasoned flour and brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add water. Cover tightly and simmer 2½ hours. Add celery, onions and green beans. Cover and continue cooking until meat is tender and vegetables are done, about 45 minutes. Remove meat and vegetables. Measure cooking liquid and add enough water to make 2 cups. Thicken liquid with ¼ cup flour for gravy. 6 to 8 servings.

CHRISTENING the U.S. Coast Guard cutter, Red Birch, when the ship was launched in Baltimore, Md., is a pleasant duty performed by Mrs. William S. Mailliard. Congressman Mailliard, whose family ties in Marin go back 100 years, became the representative of much of Marin after the state legislature voted to change district boundaries last month.

Her Busy Days In Washington

By BETTY FROST

Most Marinites acquired a new Washington, D.C. hostess as well as a new lawmaker when districting lines were shifted by the California Legislature last month. With the reapportionment much of Marin, that section lying south of Hamilton Air Force Base, will become part of the sixth Congressional district, which Congressman William S. Mailiard has represented for the past 15 years.

While Congressman Mailliard was in San Francisco last week for speaking engagements, Mrs. Mailliard remained at the family's red-brick, traditional-style home in Montgomery County, Md., a suburb to the north of Washington, D.C. With three little girls, Julia, 9, Josephine, 8 and Victoria Leigh, 5, attending Washington schools, their mother did not feel free to return to California. The family had spent the Christmas holidays in the Bay Area.

In a telephone interview Millicent Fox Mailliard spoke of their life in the nation's capital.

"THE WIFE OF a congressman does not have social duties to the same extent as wives of diplomats or cabinet members," she told us. "Although life in Washington, D.C., may sound very glamorous, and there are large receptions given constantly, we prefer to entertain at small dinner parties for 10 to 14 friends. Sometimes the dinners are informal, sometimes black tie evenings."

Born in Easton, Pa., Millicent Mailliard was educated at the Ethel Walker School in Simsbury, Conn., and Wells College in Aurora, N.Y., where she received a degree in economics in 1950. Her father, the late Edward J. Fox Jr., was a lawyer and past president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Her grandfather, Edward J. Fox, had been a Pennsylvania Supreme Court justice. Her mother, Lucy Buck Fox, is the daughter of a vice president of Bethlehem Steel Co.

Mrs. Mailliard worked on Capitol Hill in the Office of Congressman John J. Allen of Oakland for three years before her marriage in 1957.

"I HAVE LIVED in Washington quite a while," she said, "and I think of it much as I would any city. It is a community in which one takes a part."

As a member of the Junior League in Washington, D.C., her most recent responsibility was chairmanship of the three-day Christmas Shop, the league's major fund-raising activity. Over $28,000 was raised for league projects.

"The money goes into a Community Trust fund," Millicent explained, and the League puts in effort as well as financial support, with members helping in projects, such as assistance to Juvenile Court." Mrs. Mailliard served as a docent in the Early American Wing of the Smithsonian Institution, and has done volunteer work for the Washington International Center and the Adams-Morgan Community Center.

Because of her husband's position, she was invited to membership in the Republican Congressional Wives Club, which holds morning programs, and the California Congressional Wives Club, which meets socially, usually for luncheon. Another affiliation is the International Neighbor Club, with membership composed of wives of congressmen, diplomats and Washingtonians.

Golf and needlepoint are her hobbies. The family's favorite recreation is to spend weekends at the summer home they recently bought in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. "It is particularly pleasant in the summers and close enought for Bill to get to frequently during the warm months. Congress is in session all year round now," the congressman's wife said.

WHAT ABOUT THE campaign trail? "When Bill is campaigning I go with him. I'm glad to help in any way that I can, but I don't make speeches," Mrs. Mailliard told us in her pleasant voice.

Commenting on the inclusion of Marin in Mailliard's congressional district, Mrs. Mailliard said, "We have lots of relatives and friends in Marin. I hope some day we can have a home there."

How long Marin will remain in the Sixth Congressional District is uncertain. There will be another reapportionment after the 1970 census, according to Congressman Mailliard.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM S. MAILLIARD and Millicent Fox shown just before their wedding in July, 1957. Mrs. Mailliard had worked in the office of Congressman John J. Allen before her marriage. She thinks it important to take part in community affairs in the nation's capital, as well as attending to the duties which fall upon the wife of a congressman.

In Paris: Balmain Drops The Hemline

By LUCI NOEL

PARIS (AP)—Pierre Balmain asserted his authority as one of France's leading couturiers today and dropped hemlines to about one inch below the knees. Not on everything though.

Sports clothes hover around kneecaps, and many dresses belonging to suits have an imaginative array of ways to focus one's attention on the hemline. Contrasting or blending with the dress are sheer latticework, wire netting, bands of two-color embroidery in backgammon designs, or neat ideas borrowed from furniture upholstery with rows of silk fringe or tasseled balls.

Balmain's attention is also concentrated on the set-in sleeve. He slightly pads the shoulder, raising the line in a subdued French renaissance feeling. This nostalgia for the reign of Francis I explodes in a large sleeve of frilled lace in a typical line, not to be confused with the turn of the century leg of mutton sleeve.

Following Balmain's "Jolie Madame," her daughter "Miss Balmain" makes her bow to society. Balmain's collection this season will please many mothers with debutante daughters and the daughters as well.

Ravishing dance dresses sometimes evoking French chateau life in the 16th century are designed with delicate embroidery and glitter, lavishly applied to the top of the dress. The silhouette is floor length and cone shaped. Tailored touches are translated into evening fabrics and luscious colors. Satin, heavy crepe, lace, Swiss organdy take care of this group.

County-Wide Skills Day In 4-H Home Economics

The 4-H home economics skills day will be held at the Novato community house on Saturday, it was announced by Mrs. Earl Karinen and Mrs. Francis Dimmick of the Novato Aggies 4-H Club, co-chairmen of the county event, and Mrs. Frances Head, Marin County home advisor.

The exhibit entries of 4-H members in foods, clothing and home furnishings will be accepted at 8:30 a.m. with judging of the entries to begin at 9:30 a.m. Premium ribbons will be given on all entries.

Judging activities for 4-H members will be conducted throughout the day by leaders and junior leaders with Mesdames Herry Eide, E. D. King, Glen Jones, Wayne Hathaway and William Bowen as chairmen of judging.

Mesdames Frank Baccaglio, Roy Bouchey, Lewis Skowronek and Kathleen Loeffler will be chairmen of judging activities.

Mini-Snob Set Shows Fashion Elegance

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Tugging at reluctant puppies and wearing skirts almost as short as those seen on their mothers, mere babes toddled down the runway to demonstrate just what the youngster generation is coming to—in terms of fashion, anyway.

Designers showing at the New York Couture Group's spring previews have been illustrating the high cost of maintaining big girls in the style in which they have grown to be accustomed. They become accustomed early and grow from there, from indications of the kiddy show given by Joseph Love Inc.

While they don't wear mink coats—possibly because this is a spring line—the minisnob set cuts a swath in a wardrobe that matches the resort cult.

There is just the thing for Palm Beach—a high-waisted provincial print sun dress with matching pants. A blue sash hanging slack over white dotted Swiss over-all printed dress is just the thing for ballet.

The world travelers have several assortments of crisp, floral short-sleeved coats with their own little shifts as well as a variety of knits that pack well and never wrinkle.

High waists, low waists, no waists, chains and brass-buckled belts, boutique-like little shifts made of clashing panels of color; navy capes with military flavor of brass buttons and epaulets; white blouses frothy with ruffled lace; tough striped suits inspired by the gangsters of the '30s; Scarlet O'Haras in tight-waisted dresses with burgeoning skirts; and flower children in sweet little floral embroidered dresses are the ABC's of young fashion today.

This could be a report on grown girls' fashions this year since mothers have been stealing little girls' styles for the past two-years. It was just retribution that little girls should be back to copying them again—even though it is hard on the bill-paying man of the family.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Husband Has The Last Laugh, Usually At Women's Expense

DEAR HELEN:

My husband always gets the last laugh, usually at my or other women's expense. I quit taking him shopping after a clerk asked if I wore an A-cup, B-cup or C-cup, and he piped up with, "Would you believe — mug?"

Once I stopped laughing and told him men who knock women down all the time are just plain insecure. He came back with, "So? Women who knock men down are just plain lousy drivers." And, of course, he brought down the house.

I'm tired of playing straight man (or woman) to his punch-lines. What can I do?

—OUTCLASSED

DEAR OUTCLASSED:

Appreciate your quip-teaser. He's got class! Any time he pulls a funny, send it along. I'll be glad to print it. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

It happened again and I'm steaming. This couple we know is full of big plans. The go for parties, the unusual kind that takes a lot of work. Then, at the last minute when it's too late to back out, they give me a frantic call: Something's gone wrong, they need a little help. It ends up with us doing most of the work while they get the credit.

Today really tore it. This gal called to say something has goofed up their plumbing and can we have the party at our house. And, oh, yes, about half the decorations and food weren't ready, so she'd just bring them over and we could whip them out in no time while we talked. It's the third time our house has been picked for their party.

Stupid me, I said, "Okay," again and started vacuuming. But I got madder and madder as I cleaned, so I'm writing to you before I simmer down. Don't worry, I changed this enough so the couple will never be sure I wrote it . . . But I hope they wonder plenty!

What's your opinion of them?

—PARTY POOPER

DEAR P.P.:

I'd say they're either very bad planners, or extra smart ones. Next time they announce a party, send your regrets early and "be out of town that weekend." Of course, if you "return unexpectedly" you might give them a ring and pop in on a celebration another sucker helped organize. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

My sister is being married soon. She plans a big wedding with long gown and veil, three bridesmaids, a maid and matron of honor, flower girl, ring-bearer and a guest list of over 200.

But one thing bothers me. Her first marriage, at age 16, lasted three months and ended in an annulment.

Is it proper for her to have a big splash when it's really her second time around? My mother says as long as it will make her and her bridegroom happy, the plans are fine with her and Dad.

—Y. R.

DEAR Y:

An annulment destroys the existence of a marriage from the beginning. Therefore your sister needn't consider herself a second-timer. She may plan as big a wedding as she and her fiance want and your folks can afford. But she'd better find substitutes for the veil and orange blossoms, symbols of virginity. —H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Whirly Girls Fly Helicopters

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — Flying a helicopter isn't just a man's job.

At least, that's the contention of a half dozen women, aged 22 to 66, on the San Francisco Peninsula. And they back up their viewpoint — by flying helicopters.

Known as Whirly Girls, they are members of the International Women Helicopter Pilots.

There are only 118 of them in the world, they say, and the 118th member is Mrs. Jean Tinsley, Atherton mother of six.

Mrs. Tinsley received her license last Nov. 4 but has held a fixed wing license since 1957.

With all her children in school, Mrs. Tinsley, wife of Dr. Clarence Tinsley, internal medicine specialist, took up helicopter flying.

"It's the most exciting flying a person can do," she says.

Mrs. Jacqueline Ann Sachen, a fixed wing flight instructor at San Carlos Airport, also has taken up helicopter flying. She is a member of the Women's Advisory Aviation Agency, a committee appointed by President Johnson in 1964. Her husband, George, is an aeronautics instructor at the College of San Mateo. They have a 10-year-old daughter, Catherine.

Then there's Nancy Crozer, 22, of Redwood City, a technician for Reactor Experiments, Inc., in San Carlos. She wants to teach helicopter flying.

"I guess more women aren't flying helicopters because they figure 'Leave it to the men,' " Miss Crozier says. "You're busy every minute in a helicopter. That's what makes it exciting."

Ann Younger of Saratoga uses her helicopter to make deliveries for the Viking Air Service, Inc. of Santa Clara. She is director of marketing for the firm.

One of the earlier members of the International Women Helicopter Pilots is Mary Resholt of Palo Alto. She holds license No. 12 issued in 1953. She formerly worked for a helicopter firm in Bakersfield but in recent years has flown only fixed wing aircraft.

But Alice Wiesendanger of Saratoga possibly makes the most interesting use of her helicopter. She received her license three years ago at the age of 63 and now uses her copter to fly to a mountain near San Diego where she mines semiprecious stones.

"After the rains start," she says, "it would take me a long time to get a car some six miles up a fire road to my rock house atop a mountain.

"Now I park the helicopter right beside the house. If I need groceries the store is only five minutes away by helicopter."

Drinking Too Much Coffee Can Cause Cold Symptoms

A 39-year-old woman had had cold symptoms: low grade fever, chills, insomnia, weight loss, for six months. The symptoms disappeared after five days in the hospital.

Her physician, Dr. Hobart A. Reimann of Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital, Philadelphia, got his clue to her trouble when he noticed that her temperature rose after one cup of coffee she got each day. Questioning revealed that his patient had been drinking 15 to 18 cups a day.

One cup of coffee contains about one-tenth gram of caffeine. A single one-gram dose of caffeine causes mental confusion, shivering, tremor, vomiting and diarrhea. Then grams are said to be fatal.

Although the woman's caffeine intake was probably more than one and a half grams a day, it was spread over several hours, which probably was the reason she was not more seriously ill.

The woman also smoked more than a pack of cigarettes a day and regularly took sleeping pills. The nicotine and drugs also may have affected her reactions to caffeine, Dr. Reimann says.

Edgington-Steele Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Steele of Greenbrae have announced the engagement of their daughter Linda Haryett to George Lewis Edgington.

LINDA H. STEELE

Linda is the sister of Mrs. Charles S. Wiecek of De Kalb, Ill., and the granddaughter of P. H. Emerson of Alameda. Her schools are the University of California at Santa Barbara, Universite de Bordeaux, France, and the University of California at Los Angeles. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

George is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Stephan of San Francisco and the brother of Mrs. Carl Manns of Gardena and William Edgington of Ogden, Utah. He attended Weber Junior College in Ogden and is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Indiana. Both young people are employed by the Los Angeles city schools.

A Feb. 10 wedding is planned at Mission San Rafael Arcangel.

MRS. PETER McLean Denny is the former Jan Taylor of San Rafael. The Dennys were married Dec 30.

Working Women's Challenge Is To Stretch Time, Money

"The challenge of the working woman is to stretch the time used for her functions as purchasing agent, meal planner, wardrobe mistress, home decorator and maintenance administrator for maximum production at minimum cost," according to Sylvia Schur, editor of Consumer Magazine and director of a food service.

Speaking at a seminar for business and professional women, Mrs. Schur noted, "The largest consistent area of expenditure is food. Even a shopper in a hurry can save up to 25 per cent of the food bill by using savvy.

"Before you shop, check the specials noting those which you can buy in quantity and use as needed for family meals. Check your own cupboards and freezers and see which staples you can use the most. Plan menus and shop accordingly.

"When you get to the store, look around for the special prices as well as the advertised items. These are your guides to what is plentiful, what is the best buy and what you can buy at the best advantage.

"Non-fat milk solids cost only one-third the price of fresh fluid milk and keep well on the shelf. Poultry and fish can replace more expensive red meats and offer a bonus of quick cooking.

"Even completely pre-cooked meals, frozen in cans, ready to heat and serve, represent a saving as against eating out or employing a housekeeping assistant to help prepare a meal for you.

"The cheapest," Mrs. Schur stresses, "is not always necessarily the best buy for you because you are buying time and convenience, as well as a specific product."

Greenbrae's carefully selected nursing staff knows that understanding and kindness are as essential as professional care in restoring the patient to maximum health.

PARISIANS DOFF SOMBREROS

Under the influence of Mexican dress, Parisian designer Jacques Esterel presented his Spring-Summer Collection for 1968. Here four models display mini dresses of netted material as they doff their sombreros. These girls show how flowers, sleeves, pockets, printed aprons and other trappings, after the fancy of the wearer, may be hung from the basic garment. (UPI Cablephoto)

'Off The Wall' New York's New Hangout For Singles

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's hard enough these days to tell teen-age girls from teen-age boys and Ben Kappel isn't making it any easier. He has opened a store in New York where all the clothes are worn interchangeably by boys and girls.

Take for example his long flowered Nehru shirt, made with what is sometimes called a Mao Tse-tung collar. A man puts it on and it's a sport shirt and a jazzy one at that. If a girl puts it on it's a miniskirt.

A FEW weeks ago Kappel, 26, was a rising young executive, the associate merchandising manager for a magazine. He wore Ivy League suits and button down collars and his hair and sideburns were neatly trimmed. Now, his golden hair is worn hippie style with long fuzzy sideburns and he wears his own clothing.

The change in his appearance came when he decided to open a boutique called "Off The Wall" in New York's fashionable East 70s, a hangout for the singles boys and girls, who have turned the area into the greatest meeting place since church socials.

Kappel's boutique is little more than a hole in the wall with racks holding such prized garments as 1907 U.S. Marine dress blues (with a lot of crimson and gold), U.S. Military Academy cadet jackets, high school band uniforms dripping in gold braid.

KAPPEL'S LATEST coup was the acquisition of a stock of what he called mini opera capes. They are yellow velvet and are lined with purple satin and are called mini-capes because they are so short. Young men wear them as capes. So do the girls, over skirts so short you're not sure whether they're wearing the cape and nothing else.

Another coup was the acquisition of what he called Danish transportation jackets — navy blue jackets worn by tram operators in Copenhagen or bus drivers in the Danish countryside. These are navy blue with metal buttons and are trimmed in leather.

Kappel also sells men's velveteen shirts which double as miniskirts and big bulky hand knit sweaters which also double as minidresses.

The only men products in the store are false moustaches made of human hair.

Expert Says To Exercise Muscles Underneath Skin

By ALINE MOSBY

NEW YORK (UPI)—If you wonder what helps to keep the Duchess of Windsor and Greta Garbo looking much younger than their calendar years, the answer lies in part in a skin expert whose advice you, too, could follow at home. And for free.

The duchess, Miss Garbo and 2,000 others of all ages, including Mrs. John F. Kennedy, slip into the Fifth Avenue salon of Erno Laszlo for secret sessons.

But his sessions include a few ideas that could be stolen by bargain-hunters. For one thing, his treatment includes exercising muscles underneath the face skin.

A similar portable machine for home use already is on the market.

Laszlo also massages those famous faces with his expensive oils and creams. Formerly for sale only to his wealthy clients, 10 Laszlo preparations now are on some cosmetics counters.

HIS ADVICE centers around some no-nonsense ideas that have been drowned in recent years by some big cosmetic companies trumpeting about this cream or that. Says Laszlo, soften dry skin with ordinary mineral oil and petroleum jelly. And wash your face every day with gentle soap and hot water.

Laszlo admits that the soap-water decree does not go down easily with his customers because "it is the mode here not to wash the face, and the French don't put water on the face, either."

"But women take baths every day!" he said in an interview. "You cannot clean the face with cream, that is impossible. And not cold water. That can hurt because it shrinks the skin. The water must be piping hot."

Laszlo orders his clients to follow the scrubbing with 20 splashes on the face with the same soapy hot water to spur circulation. Laszlo customers, as one complained to me, can always be known by their nearly flooded bathrooms.

SOME OF his detractors think Laszlo may be a good skin man but that he also is part showman which brings up the price.

His salon, elaborately furnished with antiques, looks like a movie set of a European palace. He is a short mustached man with soft babyish skin, apparently because he takes his own advice.

He speaks fractured Hungarian and displays charm which may account for part of his sensational success. He was born in Budapest, studied dermatology in Berlin and Vienna universities, he said, and then moved to youth-conscious New York because "I was very famous in Budapest and American women were writing me letters to ask my advice."

"I am very expensive," he added.

They will play music by Handel, Quantz, Purcell and Villa-Lobos. Guest artists will be Anabel Barahal, string instructor for the district, and students Carol Tomlinson, violin, and Jed Barahal, cello.

Tickets and information are available by calling Mrs. A. C. Kaeppel or Mrs. Burton K. Bergstrom, both of San Rafael.

Console Stolen

A-Blast Cracks Earth —For What Purpose?

A crack in the earth's surface, four-fifths of a mile long and up to 23 feet deep, has been left by the underground thermonuclear explosion of last Friday in Nevada's secluded Hot Creek Valley.

The crevice, ranging from 10 to 100 feet wide and from three to 23 feet deep, was discovered the day after the explosion. The earth's crust had collapsed as in a major earthquake.

Ninety miles from the test site, windows cracked in the old Ely High School building. Two clocks in the White Pine County Courthouse at Ely were reportedly stopped by the blast.

Between Ely and Hot Creek Valley lie a few small hamlets. Word as to the possible damage there has not yet reached the outside world. George Carnes, manager of the little Ely Times who is doubling as editor for lack of staff, said he had received no word from the paper's part-time correspondents in any of the little towns.

JUST HOW MUCH DAMAGE the blast did in Nevada — aside from the long gouge in the earth's surface — may be a long time coming to light.

Why was the explosion? The Atomic Energy Commission wants to experiment with bigger blasts than it dares set off at its permanent Nevada test site 100 miles from booming Las Vegas. So it went into Hot Creek Valley, 175 miles from Las Vegas and 200 miles from Reno.

The AEC described the blast as "of indeterminate yield," meaning it was no more than 50 times as powerful as that which killed more than 100,000 people in Hiroshima, Japan, to write "finish" to World War II.

THE PEACEFUL USES of atomic energy are many. It powers ocean going vessels; it generates electricity; it undoubtedly will be put to many other uses — if . . .

The "if" must depend on whether the scientific experiments are geared to such uses — or to destruction.

The United States and Soviet Russia both have stockpiles of atomic warheads now which would wipe out both countries several times over. Why, then, is the AEC experimenting with more powerful explosions than yet produced in a remote region of Nevada? Will this add to the United States' safety? It is difficult to see how. Will it promote peaceful uses of atomic energy? It is difficult to see how.

By what stretch of the imagination is the setting off of a man-made earthquake — which registered 6.25 on the Richter scale on the seismograph of Spring Hill College in Mobile, Ala., 1,700 miles away — be considered mere scientific experimentation?

WHEN, 35 YEARS AGO, man learned to split the atom, the fear arose at once that this knowledge might be his destruction.

The concentration of the AEC — with millions and millions of dollars of our tax money — to set off bigger and bigger atomic explosions revives that fear.

Surely the AEC has scientists who can devise more sensible atomic experimentation than mere exercises in destruction.

'Cynical Hoax'

Assemblyman Leon Ralph, D-Los Angeles, who proposes to take welfare administration out of the counties and turn it over entirely to the state, declared during discussion of the measure:

"It is a cynical hoax and a waste of taxpayers' money to keep trying to maintain the illusion of local control of welfare programs."

Maybe so, but we think it is a more cynical hoax to pretend that taxpayers' money will be saved and welfare administered more efficiently by a Sacramento-based bureaucracy—removed one step farther from the taxpayers who put up the funds.

If Assemblyman Ralph is really concerned about welfare costs, we'd like to suggest a genuine remedy: Remove some of the secrecy that shrouds the entire program.

Reagan Seeking Modification Of Outdated Reclamation Act

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Gov. Ronald Reagan, acting on the advice of his task force on agriculture, has taken up the cudgels on behalf of a change in the 160-acre limitation for purchase of water under the federal reclamation act.

The act, adopter by Congress in 1902, has been the subject of controversy for many years. It limits sale of irrigation water for farming use ot 160 acres under one ownership. Later, it was held sales could be made for 320 acres under a husband-wife ownership.

WHEN THE LAW was adopted, the limitation was designed to spread the distribution of reclamation project water over small units to accommodate the needs of more people. Since its adoption, the trend has been toward larger land holdings. In addition, due to the growing shortage of irrigation water, the need for successful irrigation of larger areas has been apparent.

The modification approach, said the governor, is a practical answer to bringing the 60-year-old reclamation provision up to date with modern farming methods.

His task force study found that the acreage limitations on delivery of water from federal reclamation projects do not benefit the economy, the farmer, or the general public.

But as a practical matter, the task force concluder outright repeal of the limitations is not likely to be achieved, and therefore recommended modifications.

THE TASK FORCE found that farm sizes in California require for efficient operations from 600 to more than 1,000 acres. This in part is due to application of technology to farming, and to labor situations which demand mechanization rather than hand labor.

Recommendations are that owners of farms exceeding the acreage limitation be provided with the alternative of making supplemental payments equivalent to an interest factor on the construction cost of the federal project, and receive water without limitation.

The legislature of California can do nothing about changing the law, except to ask Congress to make the change.

REAGAN, during his recent trip to Washington, discussed the problem with members of the California delegation. The governor urges all organizations interested in the welfare of California agriculture to join in a Congressional drive to modernize the law.

Other western states where federal reclamation projects are located no doubt will join with California in pushing the modifications.

So far, the congressional attitude has been cold to repeal of the section. However, there has been no effort in the past to modify the law.

The task force recommends a review every 10 years to determine the need for further modification.

Humane Society Truck On The Job

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Coming home from Stinson Beach on Highway 1, I saw a beautiful bull terrier in the middle of the road. I tried to get him in the car but was unable to do so, so called the Humane Society from Muir Beach. When I checked later the society truck had picked him up having been notified by radio.

I hope the happy owners who reclaimed their pet will reward the society.

Widening Project Draws Brickbats

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Brickbats to the City of San Anselmo for converting Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from two to four lanes!

Brickbats to whomever planned this fiasco.

Brickbats to the San Anselmo Police Department, who were notified by phone on the day Sir Francis Drake Boulevard was concerted from two lanes to four, that drivers were going in the wrong lane against oncoming traffic. It was suggested they have a policeman direct traffic. Their only answer was, "Have there been any accidents yet?"

The biggest brickbat of all goes to the two city officials who were observed walking down the sidewalk with big grins on their faces watching cars going in the wrong lane. Real funny, huh, boys?

Spend Funds Wisely, Not Just Quickly

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Having written a letter to the board of supervisors prior to last Tuesday's meeting urging action to delay state purchase of the Brazil-Souza ranch property, I must be considered a party to what Peter Rabbit Behr is quoted in your paper as having called a "cheap, low-down, second class raid."

Apparently Mr. Behr really blew his cool, and I am glad I was unable to be present at the meeting because I have always found it acutely embarrassing to see somebody make a long-eared animal (and I don't mean a rabbit) of himself in public . . . even an expensive, high-up, first-class politician like Mr. Behr.

I'm not in the least embarrassed, though, at being guilty of wanting my state park money to be spent for the best available park land, which may or may not be the property proposed by Mr. R. (for Raider) Roumiguiere, but which I am convinced is NOT the Brazil-Souza acreage.

There seems to be a widespread tendency to panic at the thought of possibly "losing" state or federal money by not getting it spent as quickly as possible, rather than wisely as possible. If it is, indeed, necessary to spend our money on that basis, one is tempted to go along with Peter Rabbit, though for a different reason, in his reported outburst that "if that is the way democrary works, the hell with it!"

Christmas Exchanges Filled All Requests

This is a belated thank-you for your help to the Volunteer Bureau's Christmas Exchange. This year's Christmas Exchange was, by all standards, a big success. We were able to fill every request we received, answering the needs of 120 families and 25 convalescent homes and hospitals in the county.

Where Are These Affluent Commuters?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Marin County Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau has gone on record opposing a public bus system.

First: I would like to ask them if they stand on a Greyhound bus stop for two and one-half hours every day, or as far as that goes, has any one of them ever taken a commute bus?

The freeway is crowded because the bus service is bad, not the opposite as they state.

What can they possibly mean by such a statement — I-J quote, "Marin's affluent" commuters have less stable commute time requirements "than lower echelon employees"?

Two and one-half hours is two and one-half hours, no matter what your job. Whether your paycheck is $100 or $500 per week, you must commute on a stable basis. Granted, if you make $500 a week you will probably refuse to stand on an old, dirty, carbon monoxide-smelling Greyhound and help glut the freeway by driving.

We need more and better public transportation to relieve the freeway congestion. Don't let per-family income statistics fool you. People who commute do so to provide bread and butter for a family, not furs and Cads.

Believe me no one in their right mind would commute on Marin County freeways and Greyhounds unless forced to by economic necessity. Give us BART. Just where are the "affluent" commuters Marin County Chamber of Commerce talks about?

Creditor Could Turn Joke On Debtor

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Every once in awhile somebody thinks it is a big joke to pay a creditor with sacks of minor coins as a gesture of contempt or disdain.

The fact is that the creditor could turn the joke on the debtor. He could refuse to accept the mess. Because silver coins are legal tender for sums not over $10. Minor coins (nickel or bronze) are legal tender for not over 25 cents.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

DeGaulle's Record Spells Tragedy For Very Causes He Advocated

WASHINGTON — It may not yet appear so on the surface but Gen. Charles de Gaulle is today a political leader of declining influence nearly everywhere in the world.

Time was when in many countries and among many people he was a figure of awe, viewed as a far-visioned statesman towering above others.

Now, he wouldn't win a popularity contest in any European nation outside of France, nor in the U. S., nor in Israel; and among Frenchmen it would be a close contest.

But de Gaulle has never been much concerned with personal popularity. He has preferred the mystique of aloofness.

He should be judged by what he has done and failed to do, what he is and what he could have been.

PERHAPS the bluntest and most penetrating assessment of de Gaulle in the pattern of history is contained in these words from a speech delivered in Paris only a few weeks ago by a member of the Belgian parliament:

"You could have been the first president of Europe, but you chose to be the last minister of Louis XIV," he said of de Gaulle.

Already the preoccupation of both European and French politicians today is visibly with "l'apres-Gaullisme" — or "what next?"

When you shield your eyes from the glitter of his majestic figure and look unblinkingly at the record, it is hard to escape the conclusion that de Gaulle's actions have disserved or violated his stated purposes at every major point. Here is the evidence:

1. De Gaulle said that one of his prime goals was total reconciliation with West Germany, but his constant appeals to French nationalism have stirred the resurgence of a German nationalism the results of which cannot yet be foreseen.

2. De Gaulle has constantly said that he wanted to save Europe from economic dominance by the United States, but his actions — retarding the Common Market and vetoing Britain's membership — have made Europe weaker and less able to compete economically.

3. De Gaulle stated that his goal was to make Europe less dependent upon the United States militarily, but his actions — disdaining NATO, ordering it out of Paris, and withdrawing French forces from the military structure of the Atlantic Alliance — have made Europe more dependent for security on American nuclear weapons.

4. De Gaulle has said that his purpose was to bring about a "European" Europe and this is one of the complaints he used against Britain to justify his veto. But his actions have alienated France from all of the five other members of the Common Market. It is de Gaulle who is taking a non-European course against the wishes of all the rest of Europe. He is an agent of disunity, not unity.

5. De Gaulle stated that he wanted to help end the Vietnam war and help negotiate a peace settlement in the Middle East. But his actions have undermined both goals. Instead of remaining neutral and just keeping communication open with the Arabs, he sided with the Arabs, attacked Israel, and thus nullified his peacemaking potential. The same with Vietnam. He has continuously attacked the U. S. as an aggressor and never used his influence with Hanoi to help bring both sides to the conference table.

WHY? WHY HAS the general so disserved his own purposes? There is no certain answer at this point but one European explanation is that he never really believed in the causes he expounded but used them in a way he thought would increase the grandeur of France and the prestige of his person.

For the man who could have been great, who could have been the first president of Europe, the record is a tragedy.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

New Moslem Move Adds To Middle East Tensions

By PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — An explosive new element is being interjected into the uneasy truce that exists between Israel and Arab nations in the Middle East.

Moslem leaders from 23 Asian and African countries, including the Soviet Union, are preparing to set up "committees for the rescue of Jerusalem."

This campaign was discussed at a recent meeting in Rabat, Morocco, according to information obtained in Amman, Jordan, by U. S. intelligence.

THE PLAN is to set up well-financed committees in all countries with Moslem populations to call for U. N. diplomatic-military action to force Israel to give up Jerusalem's Old City, seized from the Jordanians during last June's fighting.

American intelligence officials believe the decision of Soviet leaders to assign Deputy Foreign Minister Yakov A. Malik, as permanent Soviet representative, is tied closely to this campaigning. French diplomats here say Malik has instructions to raise the Jerusalem control issue during the coming U. N. debate on the unsettled Middle East conflict.

The key Soviet proposal, which Malik is reputed to be bringing to New York, calls for the United Nations to take temporary control over Jerusalem's Old City even if force is necessary.

THE RUSSIAN purpose appears to be the perpetuation of the Arab-Israeli conflict, since this makes it easier for the Soviet Union to penetrate the oil-rich Middle East. Peace in that region would tend to slow down expansion of Russian influence in the area.

Since the U. S. has refused to recognize Israel's takeover of former Jordanian Jerusalem, the Russians believe their move can force the Johnson Administration into either backing its plan or remaining neutral.

PREMIER LEVI ESHKOL of Israel made an unusual private appeal to American Jewish leaders in New York during his recent visit to the U.S.

The frank speaking Israeli premier asked them to use their influence to win support in their communities for President Johnson's efforts to obtain a negotiated peace settlement in Vietnam.

The unpublicized request was the outgrowth of an informal understanding President Johnson reached with Eshkol during their two-day Texas meeting.

President Johnson brought up the subject of Vietnam after winding up the talks on U. S. arms aid to Israel to offset recent Soviet aid to Arab nations.

He told the Israeli premier: "What I want and desperately need is the support of American Jewish leaders. You have great influence with them. I want you to urge them to support my Vietnam policies."

Eshkol agreed.

Another Citizen Group Sought To Plan Parks For Tiburon

Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission is hoping to form another citizens advisory committee, not to be confused with the city's earlier committee on planning or the Tiburon Peninsula Advisory Committee.

Commission chairman Polly D. Smith says the purpose would be to plan parks and trails on the peninsula, urban beautification and a recreation program.

Letters are going out from the commission to citizens known to be interested in recreation and conservation. But Mrs. Smith said "anyone interested is welcome to join."

The commission's hiking tour last Saturday attracted 23 people. A few family dogs also joined the hikers as they climbed Gilmartin Drive to the ridge, scouting around Mount Tiburon and El Marinero for likely park sites.

Park Commissioners George Ellman, Allan Thompson and David H. Teather form a committee to recommend park sites to the commission.

I HEARD with mixed feelings last week that Harbor Carriers, Inc. has withdrawn that part of its application to the Public Utilities Commission to expand ferry service to include round trips from San Francisco to Tiburon and Angel Island on a scheduled basis.

Figures being talked about for the near future on Angel Island, when a state park is developed, run around 10,000 visitors a day on weekends.

It's anybody's guess whether or not Milt McDonogh's Angel Island Ferry Service (the present boat carries 49 passengers) combined with a service by larger ferries (some of Harbor Carriers boats carry between 400 and 500 passengers) could handle such crowds.

The Tiburon city council supported local ferry operator McDonogh in his protest to the PUC.

However, some local business people feel that Tiburon needs more transportation connections, preferably bringing in people by ferry to eliminate more traffic and parking problems caused by the weekend influx of cars.

EX-COUNCILMAN Jacqueline Parnell recently reminded the council of the acute parking problem downtown and suggested it encourage ferry transportation.

Many resident object to a larger parking area as they don't want a "sea of cars" on the waterfront.

McDonogh says he plans to expand his Angel Island service as needed. President Albert D. Elledge of Harbor Carriers said last week that, if there is a demand for more service to Angel Island, the company will again apply to the PUC.

Sounds like we haven't heard the last of expansion plans for both companies.

It's Simple: No Peace Talks, For They Might Ruin Our War

WASHINGTON — My good friend Joe Wallstop, whom all of us in the column business look on as the opinion-maker, was in a foul mood when I saw him the other day.

"What's the trouble, Joe?"

"I can't stand these fools who keep talking about peace in Vietnam."

"You mean President Johnson and Dean Rusk?"

"No, you idiot," he said angrily. "I mean the appeasers and the peaceniks and the nervous Nellies who keep screaming for us to stop the bombing and sit down with the Communists."

"Oh, those fools! But why are you so upset right now?"

"Because Hanoi is trying to trick us into peace negotiations."

"I thought that was what we were going for in Vietnam."

"DON'T YOU SEE? If they are asking for peace negotiations, that means they're hurting, and instead of letting up on them now, we should really start clobbering them."

"But we were clobbering them before because they wouldn't talk peace with us."

"Exactly. We clobbered them before because they wouldn't discuss negotiations with us. They thought they were winning the war. Now that they're asking for peace, they obviously don't think they can win the war, and this is the time to let them have it."

"But, Joe, what I don't understand is that if we can't sit down with them when they think they're winning the war, and we can't sit down with them when they think they're losing the war, when the hell can we sit down with them?"

"There is no good time to sit down with Hanoi. That's why we have to keep clobbering them. I have here some captured documents which indicate that it was part of Hanoi's master plan that if they couldn't win the war they would sit down with us and talk peace."

"That's serious, if true," I said. "But what's wrong with it?"

WALLSTOP SEEMED exasperated. "Don't you understand? All they want is a breathing spell from the bombing."

"But I thought the whole idea of the bombing was to bring the North Vietnamese to the conference table."

"Sure," said Wallstop, "but they won't come to the conference table unless we stop the bombing. So why should we stop the bombing to appease them?"

"I guess we shouldn't. Then you see peace as the biggest danger of the war?"

"I certainly do. It's the one thing we can't afford to have. When you start talking peace, you have to make concessions. We're in no position to make concessions of the Communists. After all, our obligation is to South Vietnam, not North Vietnam."

"FROM WHAT you have said, you really can't have peace talks with the Communists, even if they ask for it, because if you do they would interpret it as a sign of weakness on our part."

"Now you've got it," said Wallstop. "If we stop bombing and sit down with them, it will be a moral voctory for their side."

"And if we continue to bomb them after they've asked for peace, it will be a moral victory for our side," I said excitedly.

Wallstop seemed wary. "It's so simple. Why do I have to keep explaining it to those fools all the time?"

An I-J Carrier Boy Climbs Tree To Rescue Cat

An Independent-Journal carrier boy climbed a tall Redwood in Mill Valley yesterday and rescued a subscriber's cat.

The cat, called Jessie, belongs to the family of Richard A. Gates of 131 Marguerite Avenue. It climbed a tree Saturday near the Gates home and ignored calls to come down. The humane society and firemen were called, but neither said they could help.

Phil Hawkins, 12, of 13B Lower Alcatraz Place, Mill Valley, offered to get the cat down when he delivered the Independent-Journal yesterday. Climbing the tree, Phil plucked the cat from a branch 40 feet up.

Gates, a teacher at the Family Rehabilitation Center in Lucas Valley, promised a reward.

LBJ Tax Hike Sidetracked A Third Time

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's tax increase bill has gone down for the third time in the House Ways and Means Committee, but Chairman Wilbur Mills says it is not too late to rescue it with a little more government, economizing.

"I do not believe we have yet done the best we can" to reduce federal spending, the Arkansas Democrat said yesterday as he once again shelved the year-old plan.

He indicated to administration fiscal experts the committee was willing to go along with parts of the President's tax package—postponement of telephone and auto excise tax cuts scheduled for April 1—and perhaps a speedup in corporate income tax collections as well.

But the 10 per cent surcharge in income taxes that Johnson wants will require some more belt-tightening, Mills said. The administration will have to see if it can cut the budget deficit below its current $20 billion level.

It appeared the earliest the committee could restudy the tax increase would be late February.

Mills gave Johnson's team of economic experts high marks for presenting better arguments Monday and yesterday than they did in previous attempts to show a threat of inflation justified a tax increase.

But Mills, citing sluggish retail sales, a rise of only modest proportions in industrial production since a year ago and other indicators of his own, said he was not convinced.

Kremlin Aide Attacked By A Japanese

NAGOYA, Japan (UPI)—A student with a rising sun flag and a wooden sword attacked visiting Deputy Premier Nikolai N. Baibakov of the Soviet Union today. The Russian escaped injury when a local Japanese official lunged forward to absorb the sword blows.

The student, who condemned the "flattering" treatment of the Soviet official, was arrested. He was identified as Toshitaka Suridate, 25. Police said he was carrying a rising sun flag that bore the inscription, "To see what is right and not to do it is a want of courage."

Witnesses said Baibakov and his party were standing on a railroad platform when Suridate slipped past 20 bodyguards and approached Baibakov as if to hand him a letter.

The student began swinging the three-foot, cloth-covered sword. Province Governor Mikine Kuwahara leaped forward and blocked his path. Suridate was immediately overwhelmed by the guards.

Suridate, the head of a rightwing student organization, said he was protesting the polite treatment of Baibakov during his eight-day tour and said Japanese officials had forgotten Russia's severe treatment of Japan after World War II.

Newspaper Truce Talk Described As Amicable

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Negotiations, described as "amicable," were resumed today in an effort to end the 20-day shutdown of San Francisco's two major dailies.

Phil Knox of the Newspaper Publishers Association, who is taking part in the talks, said the participants had agreed not to discuss the negotiations. But, he added, there was an apparent "amicable" feeling on both sides.

The primary talks involve the Mailers Union and the San Francisco Printing Co., jointly owned by the independent Chronicle and Hearst's Examiner.

The papers were struck Jan. 5. Negotiations were broken off Jan. 10 but resumed yesterday in a five and one-half hour session.

Representatives of the Oakland Tribune and the San Jose Mercury and News are attending the San Francisco negotiations. The mailers, with wages, fringe benefits and automation the chief issues, have also been granted permission to strike these papers.

Officers of the International Typographical Union, the mailers parent organization, sat in on yesterday's session.

Doug Smith, mailers president, expressed optimism about the resumption of negotiations, saying he believed the publishers "are coming to the table in good faith."

There was no comment from the management.

In Los Angeles, negotiations between the striking American Newspaper Guild and the Herald-Examiner were in recess yesterday. The strike started Dec. 15. The newspaper has used nonunion help to publish scaled-down editions.

Suspect Bound Over

Robert Henry Gonzales, 18, of 757 Kerner Street, San Rafael, was certified to Superior Court yesterday after a Marin Municipal Court preliminary hearing on a charge he burgled a building at 17 Canyon Oak Drive, San Rafael, Sept. 2.

12 Ranking Demos Named To Convention Committee

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — State Atty. Gen Thomas C. Lynch has appointed a 12-member committee to organize a California delegation to the Democratic National Convention.

"This is definitely a pro-Johnson delegation," he said of his appointees.

Lynch, the highest-ranking Democratic state official, named the party's state chairman, Assemblyman Charles Warren of Lons Angeles, to head the committee.

The 174 delegates and 172 alternates will technically be uncommitted. Lynch said Tuesday in a telephone interview with the Los Angeles Times.

With Warren on the selection committee will be former Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Reps. Chet Holifield of Montebello and George P. Miller of Alameda, Senate President Pro Tem Hugh Burns of Fresno, State Sen. Stephen P. Teale of West Point, Assemblyman Carlos Bee of Hayward, Assemblyman George N. Zenovich of Fresno, National Committeeman Eugene Wyman of Los Angeles, National Committeewoman Ann Alanson of San Franciso, Northern California Chairman Robert Coate, and Mrs. John Fowle, chairman of the State Central Committee's women's division.

Future Of Asia Session Theme

"The Role of Asia in Our Future" will be the theme of a statewide School Affiliation Service conference at Redwood High School Feb. 3.

About 150 foreign students are expected at the day-long conference sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee.

Speakers, workshops, a luncheon and entertainment will be provided by Redwood's International Club.

Arrangements are being made by a committee headed by Mrs. Reed Bronkbank of Kentfield, Redwood chairman of the SAS.

The affiliation service sponsors an exchange of students between the high school and a school in Preetz, Germany.

Non-Freeway Status Urged For Route 17

The San Anselmo City Council last night called unanimously for the elimination of Highway 17 from the state freeway system and recommended it be placed in the state's road system instead.

On motion of Councilman Duane C. Ragan, the council added it is against any such road, even a scenic one, going through San Anselmo without the council's consent.

It had balked at its last meeting at asking that the extension be placed in the state road system. Fairfax city council Jan. 8 called for such a placement.

Prior to last night's vote, Mayor Arthur W. Smith asked if a vote should be taken on a resolution against having a highway extension either in or outside San Anselmo's city limits.

Councilman Woodrow V. Capurro said he felt the council should confine itself only to matters within the city limits.

The council also agreed to let San Francisco Theological Seminary split required parking to both sides of the street at 111 Ross Avenue for a proposed 17-unit apartment project for married students. The seminary was authorized 27 parking spaces for 13 units on the north side of the street, and four on the south side. The total provides two more than the required 29 spaces.

The San Anselmo City Council also:

INDIAN ROCK — Passed a resolution of intention to abandon a portion of Oakland Avenue because the steep grade in the Indian Rock subdivision would make traffic difficult. Arrangement for a loop rather than through traffic has been arranged, the council was told.

TERM OF OFFICE— Resolved to return terms of appointed park and recreation commissioners from three years to four years. Administrator Alfred C. Kaeppel said the practice of three-year appointments began several years ago.

LOMA ROBLES — Resolved to abandon a one-block portion of Loma Robles Drive, a section involved in the Red Hill Slide which Kaeppel said is now uninhabitable. Public hearing on the abandonment is scheduled for 8 p.m. Feb. 27 at City Hall.

HOUSING NUMBERING — Granted request by the Ross Valley Chapter Order of DeMolay to conduct a civic service of painting house numbers on each house on the curb.

NAME CHANGE — Approved requests of Kaeppel to attend a League of California Cities' city manager convention Feb. 28 through March 1 at Palm Springs, and Director of Public Works Charles R. Leitzell to attend a California transportation and public works conference Jan. 31 through Feb. 3 at Stockton.

RESIGNATIONS — Accepted resignation of Mrs. Brooks Pringle from the parks and recreation commission. Appointment of a replacement was scheduled by the council for the Feb. 13 meeting.

FACILITIES — Elected to try to get hot water for the San Anselmo library by tapping into other city hall complex facilities. If this is not feasible, the council authorized Kaeppel to spend up to $214 for a hot water system. Authorized Strahm-Embury, insect control firm of Kentfield, to proceed with an estimated $656 termite-control project on city hall complex buildings. Kaeppel said no serious damage exists.

ELECTION — Set April 9 for the next municipal election. Polling hours will be 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

ORDINANCES — Held final reading and passage of an animal control ordinance amendment. Held first reading of an ordinance providing for the removal from public or private property of abandoned or wrecked vehicles that are unsightly and a public nuisance. Introduced an ordinance for a change of zoning of property at 194 Tunstead Avenue from duplex to multible apartment.

RENTALS — Agreed to rent at about $74 a month a new office copying machine.

$500,000 Award After Gang Fight

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — A District Court jury yesterday awarded more than $500,000 to John Gass, 23, who suffered permanent brain damage in a teen-age gang fight in 1964.

The verdict, reached after four hours deliberation, was against Michael DeSalvo, Edward J. Blumstrom, Fred H. Atcheson and Charles A. Steen, Jr., Steen is the son of uranium millionaire Charles Steen of Reno.

Atcheson and Steen testified that they agreed to a fight in a local park after a minor traffic accident. Gass was hit several times by DeSalvo while being held by Blumstrom, according to testimony.

HOW FAR
A USED VW?

About as far as you can trust a new one . . .

when it's had our 16-point Safety and Performance Inspection. That's why we can guarantee 100 PER CENT the repair or replacement of all major mechanical parts for 30 DAYS or 1,000 MILES. Of course, not every used VW gets this inspection. Only VW's sold by an authorized dealer like us.

— Engine — transmission — rear axle — front axle assemblies — brake system
— electrical system.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Mental Censors Serve To Check Actions For Accepted Society

VAN DELLEN

A group of mental censors controls behavior. These prevent adults from acting like children and doing what comes naturally. As a result, undesirable actions are curbed or modified so that we are acceptable members of society.

Our mental defenses are made up of many factors. The id is the force behind the sexual and other primitive drives. It is opposed by the ego, a more responsible area of the psyche, that attempts to keep us on our good behavior. We are not aware of this battle of the minds because it takes place at a subconscious level.

EGO IS THAT part of the mind which is concerned with the way we think, decide, and remember. It has a big job to do in keeping us happy, and helping us to live in harmony with others. Alcohol is said to dissolve the ego temporarily, leaving us without inhibitions or a defense against unacceptable habits.

What happens when temptation is too great and our defenses are not strong enough to overcome the added stress and still keep the mind at ease? The ego may resort to subterfuge and call on other defense mechanisms such as compensation, displacement, rationalization, or projection.

A MINOR CROOK, for example, may soothe his conscience by rationalization. He tells imself that others commit worse crimes than he and get away scot-free. Other persons faced with stressful situations utilize neurotic symptoms at the subconscious level. They suffer from palpitation of the heart, indigestion, or headache.

These discomforts help temporarily, especially when inner conflict stems from situations the individual would like to avoid, eliminate, or erase from his subconscious, but cannot. Without these symptoms for a crutch, they become nervous wrecks because the defense mechanisms no longer are maintaining harmony.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

CAUSES OF BREAST PAIN

H. L. writes: I am 26. Since the birth of my first child two years ago, I have had pain in my left breast. The doctor says it is a combination of muscle strain and nerves. Is this possible?

REPLY

Yes. There are many causes of pain in this area varying from irritated milk ducts to overstretched ligaments which support the breasts. Nerves may play a role by intensifying the distress.

LESS SLEEP FOR ELDERLY

A. S. writes: (1) Is laziness a disease? (2) I understand that persons over age 65 require more than 8 hours' sleep. Please comment.

REPLY

1. Laziness is not a medical condition. 2. With age, less sleep usually is required because of inactivity and a general slowing down of many body processes.

SHAVING THE LEGS

D. J. writes: Do you advise shaving the legs if there isn't a lot of har?

REPLY

Shaving is one of the most popular ways of removing hair. You neglected to mention your sex, but many women shave their legs or use a depilatory. If the hairs are light in color, service weight hosiery may do the trick.

ADHESIONS IN ELBOW

J. B. writes: What causes adhesions following a dislocated elbow?

REPLY

When an elbow is dislocated, the tissues in and about the joint are torn. As the elbow heals, scar tissue forms. I assume the bone was not fractured.

SURF SET JOINS JET AGE

Los Angeles surf lovers Heidi Sutton, 27 (left) and Sherry Haley, 23, no longer have to laboriously paddle out to where the big waves are. Yesterday they demonstrated the newest gadget—a jet-powered surf board. A line attached to Sherry's waist automatically shuts off the motor if the girls fall. (AP Wirephoto)

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Teachers' Association Again Tries For Bargaining Change

The California Teachers Association will seek amendment of the Winton Act during this year's legislature.

The Winton Act, passed in 1965, gives teacher organizations rights of collective bargaining with school boards. It was sponsored by the CTA, and passed over objections of the rival AFL-CIO California Federation of Teachers.

However, during its progress through the legislature, the words "negotiate in good faith" were replaced by "meet and confer." The amendment proposed by CTA this year would restore the original wording.

A REQUIREMENT that school boards "negotiate in good faith" with teacher committees named under the act would embody language usual in labor legislation. The CTA's seeking this amendment is in line with the movement of National Education Association affiliates — of which it is one — toward teacher strikes. Since the Winton Act prescribes no procedure for resolving an impasse between teachers and board, the strike is left as the teachers' principal weapon. But the CTA would presumably be in better legal position, in case of a strike, if it could charge that the school board had refused to "negotiate in good faith."

The Winton Act change is but one of 19 bills CTA is pushing in the current legislature. Another would extend collective bargaining rights to state college faculties.

THE MAMMOTH TEACHER organization will try again for a state minimum teacher salary of $6,000 per year. This passed last year, but was vetoed by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The first bill put in the hopper on the opening day of the legislature was a repeat of a CTA-backed bill that failed last year. This is the bill by Sen. George Miller Jr., D-Martinez, to eliminate almost all state curriculum requirements, leaving them for determination by local school boards.

THE COACHES' LOBBY, assisted by the State Department of Education, got this bill amended in committee last year to restore compulsory physical education — one of the things Miller was most determined to throw out. When it emerged on the floor in this form, near the end of the session, Miller himself withdrew the bill.

The CTA also has its financial package bill, which in this year's version is supposed to provide $155 million additional state aid for the schools and, according to the association, "indirect property tax relief." This would supplement last year's AB 272, pushed through as a "property tax relief bill" by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood.

UNRUH'S MEASURE provides that if the funds are not used for property tax relief, the half-cent which was added to the sales tax to finance the package will be rescinded. However, it is simple enough for a school board to raise taxes while getting the money, saying that as a higher raise would have been necessary without it, this constitutes property tax relief. This happened in many districts last year.

Something new in this year's CTA legislative program is a bill for a "Teaching Credential and Graduate Internship Teacher Education Act." This would change the teacher licensing structure to provide for three credentials: (1) intern for beginning teachers, (2) standard for experienced teachers entering California schools from other states, and (3) life standard

NOT TOUCHED in CTA's announcement of this plan is whether it would be proposed to exempt teachers with the intern credential from the "instant tenure" provision of Chapter 13443 of the California Education Code, which makes it next to impossible to fire a teacher once he has been hired.

The CTA also proposes a "Professional Practices Act" to allow the education system to set up self-regulatory machinery, "as for other professions."

THE ORGANIZATION will again support a bill to reduce the requirement for passage of school bonds from two-thirds favorable vote to 60 per cent favorable vote. This failed last year.

Another proposed measure which has its backing would separate junior colleges from all other types of school districts and put financing of junior colleges in the hands of the state.

Other bills are mostly concerned with changes in the teacher retirement system to provide greater benefits, and with fringe benefits for teachers still in service.

Span Directors To Decide On Computer Lease

Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District will be asked on Friday to approve leasing computer at $3,225 a month to record tolls, figure payrolls and do some accounting.

Members of the bridge's building and operating committee voted approval of the International Business Machines computer at a meeting yesterday and will recommend directors lease it to replace the 30-year-old toll counting system which a bridge engineer said costs $60,000 a year to operate.

The committee discussed a proposal to sell bridge toll books by mail but turned it down, noting the possibility of receiving bad checks and not being able to verify the arrival of books by mail.

Stand Hammered Out On Super-Government

A framework to help Marin cities form opinions on what is needed or not needed in the proposed Bay Area super-government has been erected by a committee of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen.

There was much debate and dissension among committee members Monday, reported Alfred C. Kaeppel, San Anselmo city administrator, but they finally arrived at a statement on which all could agree.

The committee is in favor of multi-purpose regional authority providing it does not interfere "with local functions as we know them."

Such an authority, said the committee, could assume existing regional activities which already have money from existing taxes.

Half of the regional governing body should consist, during the transitional period, of members elected by cities and counties and the remainder, directly elected.

Kaeppel said the committee hoped city councils would study this statement and come up with their own conclusions on regional government in time for the next meeting of the committee.

This is scheduled for Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. at San Rafael City Hall.

"At that time we should be able to arrive at an over-all consensus of opinion from cities for presentation at the next meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen Feb. 14," said Kaeppel.

This will be two days before a hearing on Bay Area Regional Government scheduled by the Joint Legislative Committee at Marin County Civic Center.

Marin Republicans Hire Manpower For New Office

The Marin County Republican Central Committee last night confirmed the hiring of Mrs. John R. Shumway of Terra Linda as executive secretary.

The paid, part-time position was created last fall to man the party's new county headquarters at 915 Lootens Place, San Rafael. Mrs. Shumway replaced Mrs. Howard C. Lee of San Rafael, who resigned to help her husband with his business.

Mrs. Shumway lives at 617 Bamboo Terrace.

Committee members also adopted a resolution supporting a proposed amendment to the state constitution that would guarantee that the governor and lieutenant governor be of the same party.

Edmund C. Ward was appointed chairman of the resolutions committee, and Morton R. Colvin was appointed chairman of the election laws and procedures committee.

The committee appointed four new associate members: Paul Eastman of Corte Madera, Mrs. Charles R. Schwab and Mrs. Leland S. Bright of San Rafael, and Mrs. Glenn Barton of Novato.

Drug Abuse Class To Be Topic Of Mill Valley Clinic

Drug education in the classroom and drug abuse will be the topics at a meeting of Mill Valley School District teachers at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 31 at Edna Maguire School.

Speakers will be Dr. Sanford Feinglass, district coordinator for drug abuse education in the Marin County School Department, and Dr. Ernest Dernburg, psychiatric director of a clinic in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco.

Parents are welcome at the meeting, the district office announced. A discussion and question period will follow the speeches.

Pupils will be released early that day so teachers can attend. First through third graders will be out of school at 1:05 p.m., seventh and eighth graders at 1:50 p.m., and fourth through sixth graders at 1:45 p.m., with the exception of sixth graders at Alto School, who will be released at 1:20 p.m.

General Motors and Ford each own controlling interests in major European auto manufacturing firms.

Service Station Refused Hookup To Sewer Lines

An application by Gulf Oil Co. for sewer connections to a proposed service station on Waldo Point near the Heliport was rejected Monday by the Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District Board.

The application was refused on grounds there are no permanent sewage facilities in the area. Board President Cyril G. Hansen said an assessment district was proposed a year ago to finance permanent mains and a lift station, but this was opposed by property owners.

Hansen was re-elected board president for 1968, and incumbents Carl F. Urbutt and George K. Elkington were seated for new terms, having been reappointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors as unopposed candidates.

The board was told that the Marin County Redevelopment Agency has authorized installing a temporary sewage hookup to commercial facilities in Marin City, replacing a broken 15-inch main.

Stanford Grad Is Harvard Dean

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Harvard Law School has announced the appointment of a 37-year-old Stanford graduate as its new dean.

Derek Curtis Bok will succeed Erwin N. Griswold, now solicitor general of the United States.

Bok, a native of Bryn Mawr, Pa., received a bachelor of arts degree from Stanford in 1951 and a bachelor of laws degree magna cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1954.

Bay Abortion Case Trials Continue

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— A second prominent San Francisco physician went on trial today before the California Board of Medical Examiners on charges of performing illegal abortions.

The board was expected to start and finish the case today of Dr. Syemour Smith, staff member at St. Francis Hospital.

Smith, Dr. J. Paul Shively chief of obstetrics at St. Luke's Hospital in San Francisco, and seven other physicians are charged with performing therapeutic abortions on women who had German measles early in pregnancy, and feared giving birth to deformed babies.

Shively's two-day trial before the 12-member board ended yesterday. The board took the case under advisement and may rule on it this week.

Six abortions were performed at St. Luke's Hospital with the knowlege of Shively and police. He performed two of them and assisted in a third.

All of the doctors face the possibility of losing their right to practice medicine. They are charged with violating the state's new liberalized abortion law which forbids abortions for pregnant women with German measles.

Defense attorneys for Shively introduced petition yesterday containing signatures of 1,600 physicians in the bay area who said therapeutic abortions were accepted as "standard practice" in the area.

The new law permits abortions in cases involving rape, incest or if there is substantial risk to the mental or physical health of the mother, but Gov. Ronald Reagan insisted on removal of a clause that would have permitted abortion to prevent birth of a defective child.

also at Petaluma that weekend will be Tomales High School FFA chapter's parliamentary proceedure team which became regional winners in a separate contest.

Parks is president of the team and other members are Bob Borello and Bob Bissig of Point Reyes Station, Jim Furlong of Bodega and Pat Hendren of Bodega Bay.
